NEW QUESTION # 96

What are two ways a question can be escalated to a case?

Choose 2 answers

- A. Automatically via Case Assignment Rules
- B. Manually by users commenting "Escalate"
- C. Manually by a moderator selecting "Escalate to Case" in the Feed
- D. Automatically via process Builder by meeting specified criteria

Answer: C,D

Explanation:

A question can be escalated to a case in two ways:

Manually by a moderator selecting "Escalate to Case" in the Feed. A moderator is a user who has permission to manage content on your site. A moderator can escalate a question to a case by clicking on the "Escalate to Case" action in the Feed menu of the question post.

Automatically via process Builder by meeting specified criteria. Process Builder is a tool that allows you to automate business processes based on criteria and actions. You can use Process Builder to create a process that escalates a question to a case when certain criteria are met, such as number of comments, number of likes, or time elapsed.
