ACFE Certified Fraud Examiner - Fraud Prevention and Deterrence Exam Sample Questions (Q11-Q16):

NEW QUESTION # 11
During a fraud risk assessment, the assessment team determines that it would like to observe the interactions among several employees as they collectively discuss the organization's current fraud awareness training.
Which of the following techniques would be MOST HELPFUL for the team to use in gathering this information?

- A. Anonymous feedback mechanisms
- B. Interviews
- C. Surveys
- D. Focus groups

Answer: D

Explanation:
Definition of Focus Groups:
* Focus groups involve small groups of individuals discussing a specific topic under the guidance of a facilitator. This technique is used to gather qualitative insights through direct interaction and observation.
Why A is Correct:
* Observing employee interactions during a focus group provides rich, contextual data about attitudes, understanding, and engagement with fraud awareness training.
Why Other Options are Incorrect:
* B (Surveys): Collect quantitative data but lack interaction and observational opportunities.
* C (Anonymous feedback mechanisms): Useful for confidentiality but do not allow observation.
* D (Interviews): Individualized and do not involve group dynamics.

NEW QUESTION # 12
Which of the following is TRUE regarding the G20/OECD Principles of Corporate Governance?

- A. They assert that a corporate governance framework should ensure the equitable treatment of all the organization's shareholders.
- B. They are intended to be applicable in developed economies but not in emerging markets.
- C. They are required to be implemented by all corporations in the jurisdictions that have officially adopted them.
- D. They state that a corporate governance framework should require disclosure of all financial information to the organization's investors.

Answer: A

Explanation:
The G20/OECD Principles call for a corporate governance framework that ensures "the equitable treatment of all shareholders including minority and foreign shareholders." This principle reinforces fairness and equal rights in governance systems.
"The Principles... call for a corporate governance framework that protects the exercise of shareholders' rights and supports the equal treatment of all shareholders including minority and foreign shareholders."
