NEW QUESTION # 131

What is the primary reason for performing vendor management?

- A. To document the relationship between the company and the vendor
- B. To understand the risk coverage that are being mitigated by the vendor
- C. To establish a vendor selection process
- D. To define the partnership for long-term success

Answer: D

Explanation:

The primary purpose of vendor management is to define and maintain a partnership for long-term success by ensuring vendors align with the organization's goals and security requirements.

* Definition of Vendor Management:

* Involves selecting, managing, and monitoring vendors to ensure they meet contractual and performance standards.

* Key Objectives:

* Establish strong, collaborative relationships that benefit both parties.

* Ensure vendor compliance with security policies and standards.

* Why Other Options Are Less Relevant:

* Risk Coverage: A component but not the primary purpose.

* Vendor Selection Process: Initial step, not the ultimate goal.

* Documentation: Necessary but secondary to fostering long-term partnerships.

* Vendor Management Framework: Highlights building sustainable partnerships as a core goal.

* Third-Party Risk Management: Aligning vendors with organizational security and business strategies.

NEW QUESTION # 132

Which of the following is the BEST reason for CISO collaboration with legal, IT, and core business functions?

- A. To provide integration of the security program to the business
- B. To allow for faster acquisition of security services and products
- C. To make sure all regulatory requirements are distributed to all stakeholders in the business
- D. To include as many people as possible with security decisions

Answer: A

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation (250-350 words) From Exact Extract from Chief Information Security Officer (CCISO) Documents:

The EC-Council CCISO Body of Knowledge emphasizes that the primary reason a CISO collaborates with legal, IT, and core business functions is to integrate the security program into the business. CCISO guidance consistently stresses that information security must be embedded into business processes, decision-making, and strategy rather than operating as an isolated technical function.

Collaboration with legal ensures regulatory, contractual, and liability considerations are addressed.

Engagement with IT enables effective implementation of controls and operational alignment. Coordination with business units ensures
