IFSE Institute Life License Qualification Program (LLQP) Sample Questions (Q272-Q277):

NEW QUESTION # 272

Larissa is a 65-year-old retired marketing executive. She is single and has no dependents. Larissa accepted a generous retirement package from her employer five years ago and used her early retirement cash bonus to consolidate her financial affairs. She paid off mortgages on both her principal residence (a condo) and her vacation cottage. The fair market value (FMV) of the real estate increased significantly over the years. She named her sister Natalya as the sole beneficiary of her estate. In addition to the two properties, Larissa's estate includes a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP) and shares of Apple Inc. that she purchased in her tax-free savings account (TFSA) 10 years ago. If Larissa were to pass away today, which of her assets would be fully taxable on her final income tax return?

- A. The TFSA.
- B. The condo.
- C. The RRSP.
- D. The cottage.

Answer: C

Explanation:

When Larissa passes away, her RRSP will be fully taxable on her final income tax return, as it is considered income in the year of death unless rolled over to a qualified beneficiary, such as a spouse. Her TFSA, on the other hand, is not taxable upon death as it passes tax-free to the beneficiary or estate. The principal residence (condo) and cottage may incur capital gains tax, but they are not fully taxable as income. Therefore, Option D, the RRSP, is correct.

NEW QUESTION # 273

Angus is involved in a motorcycle accident and due to his injuries has to spend a few nights in the hospital. He is released from the hospital with a doctor's note indicating that he is able to perform certain parts of his job, but that it would take months until he can be back to normal. He promptly calls his insurance agent Dawn to ask her if he would be entitled to his disability benefits. Dawn reads his policy and tells him that he will not receive any disability benefits.

Which disability definition is MOST LIKELY included in his policy?

- A. Any occupation
- B. Regular occupation
- C. Own occupation
- D. Total disability (according to the CPP)

Answer: A

Explanation:

The "any occupation" definition of disability is the most restrictive and generally requires that the insured be unable to perform any work for which they are reasonably qualified by education, training, or experience. If Angus's policy includes this definition, it would explain why he does not qualify for disability benefits despite being unable to perform parts of his job. Under this type of policy, unless he is unable to perform any occupation, he would not be eligible for benefits. This is different from other definitions like "own occupation," which is less restrictive and provides benefits if the insured cannot perform their specific job duties.

NEW QUESTION # 274

(Matthew, 40 years old, is leaving his employer (XYZ Corp) and has $100,000 in a group RRSP.

What should Shawn, the advisor, do?)

- A. Arrange for the transfer of the cash value of Matthew's group RRSP to the group TFSA.
- B. Provide Matthew with forms to transfer his group RRSP holdings to an individual RRSP.
- C. Arrange for the transfer of Matthew's group RRSP to his wife's group RRSP.
- D. Calculate the commuted value of Matthew's group RRSP account and arrange transfer to the DPSP.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Upon termination of employment, employees can transfer group RRSP funds to an individual RRSP to maintain tax-deferred growth without triggering a taxable event.

Exact Extract:

"Upon leaving employment, a member may transfer their group RRSP assets to an individual RRSP to maintain tax deferral."

NEW QUESTION # 275

Claire, Yvon's client, wants to make changes to her insurance portfolio. In addition to her group insurance, which provides coverage for twice her salary, she has a participating whole life policy, and a 20-year term insurance to cover her debts and provide financial protection for her son. She explains that her job has been abolished and that her employer plans to offer her something else in six months. For now, her budget is significantly affected and she also thinks she has too much insurance. She asks that Yvon cancel her insurance contracts until she starts her new job and to replace them with the least-expensive term insurance possible. Further to Claire's request, what should Yvon do?

- A. Do what Claire wants, because it is up to the client to decide. Yvon could explain to her that starting over will be more expensive, assuming that she remains insurable. Her group insurance provides her with some coverage, at least.
- B. Cancel her coverage, since the cash value and accumulated dividends will provide her with enough liquidity to replace her lost salary. Ten-year term insurance would be cheaper and she will not have to fill out a life insurance replacement declaration.
- C. Fill out a new needs analysis because she is losing her group insurance coverage. She could take advantage of the cash values and the dividends left on deposit and borrow, leaving her policy as collateral.
- D. Encourage Claire to keep her coverage. Yvon must show her, with an updated needs analysis, that she is temporarily losing her group coverage and that different options on her whole life policy could help her financially.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract:

The LLQP states that life insurance decisions must be based on updated needs analysis, especially during life transitions. Whole life policies offer cash values, dividends, and borrowing options, which may provide liquidity. Yvon should guide Claire with financial alternatives rather than cancelling valuable permanent coverage during temporary hardship.

NEW QUESTION # 276

Patricia is a laboratory technician who normally earns $4,000 a month. A few months ago, she injured her leg rollerblading and was unable to work for four months. Since she owns a disability insurance policy with a residual benefit option, she received $2,400 a month from the insurer. Now that she is recovered, her doctor has cleared her to slowly return to work. Since she cannot work her regular full-time hours, her pay has decreased to $3,000 a month.

How much will she receive from her residual benefit when she returns to work?

- A. $1,000
- B. $0
- C. $600
- D. $2,400

Answer: C

Explanation:

A residual benefit in a disability insurance policy provides partial benefits if the insured returns to work in a reduced capacity and suffers a loss of income. Patricia's income has decreased from $4,000 to $3,000, representing a 25% reduction in income ($1,000 loss out of $4,000). Since her policy provides a residual benefit, she will receive 25% of her original monthly benefit, which is 25% of $2,400, amounting to $600.

This is calculated to supplement her reduced earnings, aligning with the guidelines on residual benefits provided by LLQP.
