Cisco Certified Support Technician (CCST) Cybersecurity Sample Questions (Q293-Q298):

NEW QUESTION # 293

Why is it important to stay current with automated threat intelligence technologies?

- A. To enhance the effectiveness of security measures
- B. All of the above
- C. To leverage the latest advancements in machine learning and AI
- D. To adapt to evolving cybersecurity threats

Answer: B

Explanation:

Staying current with automated threat intelligence technologies is vital in the field of cybersecurity. Firstly, as cyber threats continuously evolve, staying up to date allows organizations to adapt their defenses and countermeasures accordingly. Secondly, leveraging the latest advancements in machine learning and artificial intelligence helps improve the accuracy and efficiency of threat detection and response. Lastly, by staying current, organizations can enhance the overall effectiveness of their security measures and stay ahead of potential threats.

NEW QUESTION # 294

Which of the following is a common security control measure used to protect applications from unauthorized access?

- A. File compression
- B. Hard disk formatting
- C. Data anonymization
- D. Biometric authentication

Answer: D

Explanation:

Biometric authentication is a security control measure that uses physical or behavioral characteristics, such as fingerprint scanning or facial recognition, to verify a user's identity. By implementing biometric authentication, organizations can add an extra layer of protection to their applications and control access to sensitive data. File compression, data anonymization, and hard disk formatting are not directly related to application security measures.

NEW QUESTION # 295

Which of the following is a common authentication protocol used in wireless networks?

- A. SMTP
- B. SSH
- C. FTP
- D. WPA

Answer: D

Explanation:

WPA (Wi-Fi Protected Access) is a widely used authentication protocol for securing wireless networks. It provides stronger security than the older WEP (Wired Equivalent Privacy) protocol by utilizing encryption algorithms and dynamic key generation. WPA offers better protection against unauthorized access and helps ensure the confidentiality and integrity of wireless communications.

NEW QUESTION # 296

What is one of the ethical principles that guide the code of ethics for cybersecurity professionals?

- A. Discrimination
- B. Confidentiality
- C. Impersonation
- D. Anonymity

Answer: B

Explanation:

Confidentiality is one of the key ethical principles for cybersecurity professionals. It requires professionals to respect the privacy of individuals and organizations by keeping sensitive information secure and not disclosing it without proper authorization. This helps build trust and ensures the protection of confidential data.

NEW QUESTION # 297

Which of the following is a secure method for sharing sensitive documentation with external parties?

- A. Printing the documents and sending them through traditional mail
- B. Using an encrypted communication channel
- C. Sending the documents via email attachments
- D. Uploading the documents to a public file-sharing service

Answer: B

Explanation:

Sending sensitive documentation via email or public file-sharing services presents security risks. It is recommended to use an encrypted communication channel, such as secure file transfer protocol (SFTP) or a secure cloud-based collaboration platform, to protect the confidentiality and integrity of the information being shared.
