ASIS Physical Security Professional Exam Sample Questions (Q281-Q286):

NEW QUESTION # 281

Contingency planning is the result of which four major components?

- A. emergency response, crisis management, business recovery, business resumption

- B. emergency response, crisis management, pressure devices, risk analysis
- C. under investigation, crisis management, business recovery, pressure devices
- D. basic planning, crisis management, business recovery, business resumption

Answer: A

Explanation:

Comprehensive Detailed Explanation:

Contingency planning in security and business continuity comprises four key components:

Emergency Response - immediate action to protect life and assets.

Crisis Management - command, communication, and decision-making during crises.

Business Recovery - restoring critical functions temporarily.

Business Resumption - restoring full, normal operations post-disruption.

Other options include irrelevant terms such as "pressure devices" or "under investigation," which are not core to contingency planning.

NEW QUESTION # 282

One example of a company's intangible assets would be its:

- A. Reputation
- B. Patents
- C. Digital files
- D. Obsolete equipment

Answer: A

Explanation:

An intangible asset is non-physical but adds value to an organization. A company's reputation is a prime example-it influences customer trust, brand strength, and business continuity, especially in crisis situations.

A (Patents) are intellectual property, which are intangible but categorized differently.

C (Digital files) are tangible in terms of data assets.

D (Obsolete equipment) is a tangible depreciated asset.

NEW QUESTION # 283

Communism has common property and radical Islam has sharing property

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: A

Explanation:

Communism promotes state or collective ownership of property as a political and economic ideology. Radical Islam, while it may advocate for community-oriented economic practices (e.g., zakat, or almsgiving), does not follow the same foundational principles of property ownership as communism. The idea of "sharing property" in radical Islam is not analogous to "common property" in communism.
