Associate Reactive Developer Sample Exam

Before Starting

This sample exam has 20 questions that will help you get ready for the Associate Reactive Developer exam.

We recommend that you prepare a real exam environment, as much as possible.

- Book a quiet room just for you.
- Print this document, apart from the last page.
- Get a stopwatch or set a timer for the (recommended) duration of 40 minutes.

The last page of this document has the correct answers. Don't peek! Use it only after completing your exam, to check how well you did.

During the Sample Exam

To accurately simulate the real exam environment, we suggest that you:

- Read each question and its answers carefully.
- Take your time! Questions may be revisited and your choices can be changed.
- Mark the questions that you want to review at the end.
- Pick only one answer per question, as only one is correct.
- Answer all questions, as there's no benefit in not doing so.
- Try turning off all electronic devices during the exam.
- Refrain from using or reading any external materials during the exam.

After Completing the Sample Exam

After completing the exam, validate the answers you selected by checking the ones provided in the last page of this document, and count the total number of correct answers. The passing score is 70% or higher, so you should get at least 14 questions right. In case you chose any wrong answers, we suggest you review the study materials where that specific topic is covered.
