NEW QUESTION # 15

DEV is a company-managed Kanban project with many statuses.

Users should never see issues in Cancelled or Rejected status when viewing their project board.

You want to remove the issues from the board but still have them counted in project reports.

Identify the approach that satisfies this requirement.

- A. hide the two statuses through a quick filter
- B. exclude the two statuses from the board filter
- C. add a board sub-filter to exclude the two statuses
- D. remove the statuses from the project workflow
- E. create swimlanes for all the statuses except these two

Answer: C

Explanation:

Adding a board sub-filter to exclude the Cancelled and Rejected statuses removes those issues from the board view while still including them in project-level reports. This approach hides them from the board without deleting or modifying workflow data.

NEW QUESTION # 16

You want to configure a Kanban board so that issues disappear from the Done column as soon as they are dragged into it. But you need to see Done issues in reports. How can you achieve this behavior?

- A. modify the board sub-filter
- B. modify the board filter
- C. modify a quick filter
- D. modify the unmapped statuses
- E. modify workflow status names

Answer: A

Explanation:

Modifying the board sub-filter allows you to exclude Done issues from the board view after they are moved to that status, while still keeping them in Jira and visible in reports. This way, they disappear from the board immediately but remain part of historical and reporting data.
