NEW QUESTION # 117

Which of the following is the best example of surface culture?

- A. Language
- B. History
- C. Religion
- D. Tradition

Answer: A

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation:

Surface culturerefers to thevisible and observable aspectsof a culture - things that outsiders can see or hear quickly.Languageis the clearest example, as it:

* Is immediately apparent

* Shapes communication but not necessarily deeper values

* Can be learned without understanding the culture's underlying beliefs In contrast, elements likevalues, norms, and beliefs(e.g., religion, tradition) are part ofdeep culture.

GPHR Study Guide Extract - Workforce Relations and Risk Management / Cultural Awareness:

"Surface culture includes behaviors and practices such as language, dress, and food. These are easily observable, but deeper values require contextual understanding." Understanding surface culture helps with initial adaptation but does not replace deeper cross-cultural competence.

NEW QUESTION # 118

A U.S. based high tech company has built a R&D office in Bangalore, India. Four years have passed since the greenfield operation was successfully built. During this time, the new location has taken on higher priority engineering projects and has trained and developed managerial skills of its newly recruited managers in Bangalore.

Headquarters wants the office to take on a new engineering project that would expand its business in the U.S. by adding a new product line. This project has been identified as the most important objective for the corporation in the mid-term. The project is still in the phase of identifying specifications and developing milestones, where the engineering management team is working closely with the product manager. The management team understands that it must create an international assignment program to have this project run smoothly. The team believes that extended business travel would be the most appropriate program. In order to confirm their belief, the HR manager does extensive research. The analysis shows that extended business travel will result in $10,000,000 additional revenue in the first year and $5,000,000 additional revenue in the second year due to the customization of the product to customer demand. The cost of the program is $400,000 initial investment plus a variable cost of $100,000 per year. What is the return on investment in the first year ?

- A. 500%
- B. 250%
- C. 20%
- D. 40%
