NEW QUESTION # 53
During an optimization session, a client using AEM 6.5 mentions that they face challenges with their AEM Author setup. The client has significant repository growth and can see an increased amount of TAR files in the segmentstore on disk. When editors are working, they see that workflows take up more time. The purging of workflows works as expected. Which two optimizations should an Architect suggest to took into and further investigate? (Choose two.)

- A. Execute an offline tar compaction twice a day
- B. Leverage workflow offloading for all workflows
- C. Increase the maxFileSize of the TAR segmentstore
- D. Leverage Transient Workflows where possible
- E. Configure the Maximum Parallel Jobs

Answer: B,D

Explanation:
Leverage workflow offloading for all workflows and Leverage Transient Workflows where possible123. According to Adobe

Experience Manager documentation2, workflow offloading is a technique that distributes processing tasks among AEM instances in a topology. This can improve performance and scalability of AEM author instances by using dedicated instances for executing workflows. Transient workflows are workflows that do not persist any data or history and are automatically purged after completion3. This can reduce repository growth and improve workflow efficiency.

NEW QUESTION # 54

A media company surveys the end users of their AEM Sites website. The survey identifies that it is difficult to locate content on the site due to lack of relevancy and slow performance when navigating through the large volume of content.
To address both issues, the business team suggests integrating an innovative taxonomy product to the company s AEM implementation. The product is new on the market and the development team has no experience with the technology.
Which two steps should an Architect recommend to evaluate this new feature? (Choose two.)

- A. Test usability of the feature withselected end users
- B. Develop the integration as proof of concept with sample content
- C. Test usability of the feature with selected business users
- D. Develop the integration as proof of concept with full production content
- E. Develop the integration and deploy it to 50% of the production AEM instances

Answer: C,D
