NEW QUESTION # 75

An Administrator has a customer that will go live without an external tax provider until some complex regional requirements are solidified. They will start using a flat tax on a per country and per region basis in the meantime. The customer has provided the data in a CSV file with three columns: country, region, taxRate.

Which two actions should the Administrator take to use the tax data?

- A. Use the Import feature in the Commerce App to load the tax data.
- B. Use Data Loader to import the CSV file to the Cart Tax object.
- C. Have a developer modify the tax code used in the checkout flow.
- D. Create a custom object.

Answer: A,B

Explanation:

To utilize the tax data provided in a CSV file for flat tax rates per country and region, the Administrator should:

B: Use Data Loader to import the CSV file to the Cart Tax object: Data Loader is a client application for the bulk import or export of data. Using it to import the CSV file into the Cart Tax object allows for the application of the specified tax rates during checkout based on the country and region.

C: Use the Import feature in the Commerce App to load the tax data: The Commerce App's import feature can facilitate the bulk upload of tax rates directly into the system, ensuring that the correct tax rates are applied during transactions based on the specified criteria.

NEW QUESTION # 76

What step can a Buyer take to initiate the checkout process in a storefront on B2B Commerce?

- A. Click the Checkout button on the Cart page
- B. Submit a PO (Purchase Order) for automatic approval
- C. Click the Proceed button on the Checkout tile
- D. Open the detail view for My Carts and click the Checkout button

Answer: A

Explanation:

Clicking the Checkout button on the Cart page is the step that a buyer can take to initiate the checkout process in a storefront on B2B Commerce. The Cart page is where buyers can review their order details, such as products, quantities, prices, and discounts. The Checkout button takes buyers to the Checkout page, where they can enter their shipping and billing information, select a payment method, and place their order.
