Scrum Professional Scrum Master I Sample Questions (Q184-Q189):

NEW QUESTION # 184

A member of the Development Team takes the Scrum Master aside to express his concerns about data security issues. What should the Scrum Master do?

- A. Ask the person to share the issue with the team as soon as possible.
- B. Create a Product Backlog item for security.
- C. Go check with the testers.
- D. Add security to the definition of "Done".
- E. Tell the Product Owner to stop further development of features until the issues are fixed.

Answer: A

Explanation:

The Scrum Master should ask the person to share the issue with the team as soon as possible, as stated in [5]: "The Scrum Master should encourage transparency and collaboration within the team and with other stakeholders. If there is a concern about data security issues, it should be brought up to the team and discussed openly. The team can then decide how to handle it, whether by creating a Product Backlog item, updating the definition of "Done", or taking some other action."

- A. Create and deliver the report to the manager herself.
- B. Tell the Development Team to figure it out themselves.
- C. Tell the Development Team to fit the report into the Sprint Backlog.
- D. Talk to the IT manager and explain that progress in Scrum comes from inspecting an Increment at the Sprint Review.
- E. Ask the Product Owner to send the manager the report.

Answer: D

Explanation:

The Scrum Master should talk to the IT manager and explain that progress in Scrum comes from inspecting an Increment at the Sprint Review, as stated in [5]: "The Scrum Master should educate the IT manager about how Scrum works and how progress is measured. The Scrum Master should invite the IT manager to attend the Sprint Review where the Development Team demonstrates what was accomplished during the Sprint. The Scrum Master should also explain that status reports are not necessary in Scrum, as transparency is ensured by using artifacts such as Product Backlog, Sprint Backlog, and Increment."
