UiPath Automation Business Analyst Associate Exam (2023.10) Sample Questions (Q70-Q75):

NEW QUESTION # 70

Which document/app is used to record access required to build the automation and run it in UAT and production?

- A. Access Control Matrix
- B. Application Tracker
- C. Process Definition Document

- D. UAT Test Log

Answer: B

Explanation:

The Application Tracker is the document used to record all access requirements needed for the automation project. It includes the details of what access is needed for developers, robots, and testers during development, UAT, and production stages.

Access is one of the most common causes of project delays. Hence, the Application Tracker ensures clear documentation and tracking of which systems need access provisioning, which roles need it, and what level of access is required. It helps prevent last-minute surprises where developers or bots are blocked from interacting with key systems.

By maintaining this centralized record, project managers and infrastructure engineers can coordinate effectively with client IT teams to avoid delays, improve security compliance, and ensure timely availability of required access credentials or accounts.

NEW QUESTION # 71

What does the Applications errors & exceptions handling sub-section of the PDD include?

- A. A list of all errors, warnings and notifications that occurred during testing
- B. A list of all errors, warnings and notifications with actions to be taken for each by the robot
- C. A list of all errors, warnings and notifications that occurred during process discovery
- D. A list of all errors, warnings and notifications that occurred before the automation implementation

Answer: B

Explanation:

The Applications Errors & Exceptions Handling sub-section of the Process Definition Document (PDD) includes a list of all known errors, warnings, and notifications that may occur during the execution of the process, along with the expected actions the robot should take in response.

This section is essential for preparing the automation to handle real-world scenarios gracefully. For example, if a login fails, a system is down, or a specific field is empty, the robot must know whether to:

- * Retry the action
- * Log the error and continue
- * Escalate the issue
- * Halt execution and notify the user

These instructions are defined during the Process Analysis stage, often based on historical error logs and SME input. Including these error-handling rules in the PDD ensures that developers build automation that is resilient, robust, and capable of handling unexpected conditions during runtime.

Without this section, robots may fail unpredictably or behave inconsistently, leading to errors in production. This documentation helps ensure automation is not only functional but also stable and reliable in the long term.

NEW QUESTION # 72

Which stage involves preparing the solution for live operation and monitoring its stability?

- A. Project Closure
- B. Business Case and Technical Validation
- C. Deployment and Hypercare
- D. Process Analysis

Answer: C

Explanation:

The Deployment and Hypercare stage is where the automation is prepared for live operation, and the stability of the deployed solution is closely monitored. This stage ensures that the automation, now in production, is performing as expected and that any early issues are resolved quickly.

Key activities in this stage include:

- * Deploying the automation to the production environment
- * Verifying production environment configurations
- * Monitoring bot behavior and performance
- * Providing quick support for unexpected issues
- * Training end users if needed

The Hypercare period is a temporary support window post-deployment in which the Automation Developer, Solution Architect, and Project Manager remain closely involved to resolve defects, gather feedback, and fine-tune the automation. This stage is critical to ensure user confidence and smooth adoption of the automation into regular operations.

NEW QUESTION # 73

What is the primary purpose of the Process Assessment Tool in UiPath?

- A. Tracking project defects
- B. Designing automated workflows
- C. Determining process fit and feasibility for automation
- D. Managing robot workloads

Answer: C

Explanation:

The Process Assessment Tool in UiPath is designed to evaluate whether a business process is a good fit for automation. It assists business analysts and other stakeholders in determining both the feasibility and the value of automating a specific process. The tool assesses various dimensions such as process complexity, frequency, standardization, exception handling, and potential business impact. Based on this evaluation, the tool generates a score or categorization that helps prioritize processes for automation. This helps organizations invest their automation efforts in the right areas - those that offer high ROI and are technically viable. It also enables strategic decision-making in the Discover phase, where automation candidates are initially shortlisted and analyzed.

NEW QUESTION # 74

Which document serves as the technical blueprint during the development stage?

- A. Solution Design Document (SDD)
- B. Application Tracker
- C. Process Definition Document (PDD)
- D. Statement of Work (SOW)

Answer: A

Explanation:

The Solution Design Document (SDD) serves as the technical blueprint for the development stage of an automation project. This document is created primarily by the Solution Architect and includes detailed specifications for how the automation should be built. The SDD outlines the To-Be process flow, module design, exception handling logic, data flows, and technical components to be used. It builds on the business requirements documented in the PDD, translating them into an actionable, structured format that developers follow to implement the solution in UiPath Studio.

A well-prepared SDD ensures the development is aligned with the business goals, reduces ambiguity, and avoids scope creep. It also assists in development reviews and helps validate that the final automation meets functional and technical expectations.
