ACFE Certified Fraud Examiner - Fraud Prevention and Deterrence Exam Sample Questions (Q13-Q18):

NEW QUESTION # 13

Which of the following statements about the fraud risk assessment process is MOST ACCURATE?

- A. To ensure the independence of the team members, a fraud risk assessment must be conducted by a consultant or other external party.
- B. If the individuals conducting the fraud risk assessment truly believe that fraud could not happen at the organization, then the assessment process should reflect that belief.
- C. The fraud risk assessment can be effectively conducted by people inside or outside of the organization.
- D. The fraud risk assessment is most effective when management's influence on the process is limited

Answer: C

Explanation:

* Conducting a Fraud Risk Assessment:

* Both internal and external parties can effectively conduct fraud risk assessments.

* Internal teams provide organizational insight, while external parties bring objectivity and specialized expertise.

* Analysis of Other Options:

* B. External party only: Independence is important but not mandatory for effectiveness.

* C. Belief that fraud cannot happen: This would bias the process and render the assessment ineffective.

* D. Limiting management's influence: Management should actively participate to ensure comprehensive insights.

* Conclusion: Fraud risk assessments can be effectively conducted by both internal and external parties.

NEW QUESTION # 14

Which of the following statements is TRUE according to rational choice theory?

- A. Crime originates from an instinctual response to external stimuli without any rational or conscious decision by the perpetrator.
- B. Crime can be deterred by increasing the personal benefit to potential perpetrators.
- C. Crime originates from a rational and conscious decision made by the perpetrator in order to receive an intended benefit.
- D. Crime can be deterred by decreasing the personal risk to potential perpetrators.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Rational choice theory posits that crime is a deliberate and rational decision made by individuals who weigh the costs and benefits of their actions. Perpetrators commit crimes when they believe the potential benefits outweigh the risks. This theory also supports deterrence measures that increase the perceived risks or reduce the benefits of committing crimes, thereby discouraging rational actors from engaging in fraudulent behavior.

NEW QUESTION # 15

Reporting known incidents of fraud to law enforcement can be an effective fraud prevention mechanism.

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 16

International Standard on Auditing (ISA) 240 establishes auditors as being primarily responsible for the establishment of anti-fraud internal controls within an organization.

- A. True
- B. False

Answer: B

Explanation:

* ISA 240 and Auditors' Responsibilities:

* ISA 240 clarifies that the responsibility for establishing and maintaining internal controls rests with the organization's management, not the auditors.

* Auditors are responsible for evaluating the adequacy of internal controls and assessing fraud risks during an audit.

* Why B is Correct:

* Management is accountable for designing anti-fraud controls, while auditors provide oversight and recommendations based on their assessments.

NEW QUESTION # 17

The internal auditor's fraud-related responsibilities include which of the following?

- A. Evaluating whether management is actively retaining responsibility for oversight of the fraud risk management program
- B. Overseeing management's actions to manage fraud risks
- C. Reporting to regulators regarding the entity's vulnerability to fraud
- D. Attesting that the organization's financial statements are free of material misstatements caused by fraud

Answer: C
