APMG-International Agile Project Management (AgilePM) Foundation Exam Sample Questions (Q119-Q124):

NEW QUESTION # 119

If two separate development teams are required to work on the same project, how will this be managed?

- A. Each team will need a different Scrum Master
- B. Both teams can share the same Product Owner
- C. There will be two projects with different project roles
- D. Each team will have a different Business Visionary

Answer: B

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed 150-300 words Explanation (paraphrased from Scrum & AgilePM practice):

When multiple teams build a single product within one project, effective backlog ownership and value alignment are critical. Scrum practice-and AgilePM when combined with Scrum-supports one Product Owner for the product, even when several teams deliver increments in parallel. A single Product Owner preserves a single ordered Product Backlog, unified priorities, and consistent acceptance criteria, minimizing conflicts and dependency churn. Each team may have its own Scrum Master to optimize facilitation and impediment removal locally, but the essential management mechanism for cross-team coherence is shared product ownership (one Product Owner) paired with lightweight cross-team planning and frequent integration. Splitting into two separate projects (with separate roles) for one product typically fragments value flow and complicates governance. Likewise, mandating different Business Visionaries per team dilutes accountability for the product outcome. Hence, the preferred and most effective approach is that both teams share the same Product Owner to maintain a single value and prioritization voice.

NEW QUESTION # 123

In which of the following circumstances should processes and tools be prioritized over individuals and interactions?

- A. Requirement to create and approve documentation
- B. Contractual obligations
- C. None of the above
- D. Need to demonstrate formal control over processes

Answer: C

Explanation:

The Agile Manifesto explicitly values "individuals and interactions over processes and tools." AgilePM fully aligns with this principle. While processes, tools, documentation, and contracts are important and often necessary (especially for governance, compliance, and clarity), they should not take precedence over effective collaboration, empowered teams, and rapid feedback. AgilePM's practices-facilitated workshops, daily coordination, frequent reviews, and active business involvement-are designed to maximize human interaction to reduce waste, accelerate understanding, and improve quality. Even in regulated or contractual contexts, AgilePM recommends shaping processes and agreements to enable collaboration (e.g., clear roles, decision latency reduction, acceptance criteria, and incremental validation) rather than letting procedures dominate. Therefore, no listed circumstance justifies prioritizing processes and tools over individuals and interactions. The right choice is D. None of the above.
