Microsoft Designing and Implementing Cloud-Native Applications Using Microsoft Azure Cosmos DB Sample Questions (Q36-Q41):

NEW QUESTION # 36
You have a database in an Azure Cosmos DB for NoSQL account that is configured for multi-region writes.
You need to use the Azure Cosmos DB SDK to implement the conflict resolution policy for a container. The solution must ensure that any conflict sent to the conflict feed.
Solution: You set ConflictResolutionMode to Custom and you use the default settings for the policy.
Does this meet the goal?

- A. No
- B. Yes

Answer: A

Explanation:
Setting ConflictResolutionMode to Custom and using the default settings for the policy will not ensure that conflicts are sent to the conflict feed. You need to define a custom stored procedure using the "conflictingItems" parameter to handle conflicts properly.

NEW QUESTION # 38
You have an Azure Cosmos DB account named account1.
You have several apps that connect to account1 by using the account's secondary key.
You then configure the apps to authenticate by using service principals.
You need to ensure that account1 will only allow apps to connect by using an Azure AD identity.
Which account property should you modify?

- A. disableKeyBasedMetadataWriteAccess ,
- B. disableLocalAuth
- C. userAssignedIdentatxe
- D. allowedOrxgins

Answer: B

Explanation:
Explanation
The disableLocalAuth property is a boolean flag that indicates whether local authentication methods such as primary/secondary keys are disabled for the Azure Cosmos DB account. Setting this property to true improves security by ensuring that Azure Cosmos DB accounts exclusively require Azure Active Directory identities for authentication1.

NEW QUESTION # 39
You have an Azure Cosmos DB for NoSQL account that frequently receives the same three queries.
You need to configure indexing to minimize RUs consumed by the queries.
Which type of index should you use for each query? To answer, select the appropriate options in the answer area.
NOTE: Each correct selection is worth one point.

Answer:

Explanation:
Explanation:
Box 1 = Range
Azure Cosmos DB supports three types of indexes: range, spatial and composite. For the query you provided, which is an equality query on a single property, the best type of index to use is range. Range index is based on an ordered tree-like structure and it is used for equalityqueries, range queries and checking for the presence of a property1. Range index also supports any string or number2.

Box 2 = Composite
Azure Cosmos DB supports three types of indexes: range, spatial and composite. For the query you provided, which is an order by query on two properties, the best type of index to use is composite. Composite index is used for optimizing order by queries on multiple properties1. Composite index allows you to specify a list of property paths and sort orders that are used for ordering items2.
Box 3 =spatial
Azure Cosmos DB supports three types of indexes: range, spatial and composite. For the query you provided, which is a spatial query on a point property, the best type of index to use is spatial. Spatial index is used for querying items based on their location or proximity to a given point1. Spatial index supports point, polygon and linestring data types2.
