- A. anycast
- B. IPsec

- C. IPv4

Explanation

IS-IS (Intermediate System to Intermediate System) is a routing protocol that is designed to move information efficiently within a computer network<sup>12</sup>. It supports multiple protocol topologies, including IPv4, IPv6, and multicast<sup>12</sup>. Therefore, options C, E, and D are correct.

NEW QUESTION # 139

Which two statements are correct about using firewall filters on EX Series switches? (Choose two.)

- A. You can apply firewall filters to both Layer 2 and Layer 3 traffic on an EX Series switch.
- B. You can deploy only stateless firewall filters on an EX Series switch.
- C. You can deploy both stateless and stateful firewall filters on an EX Series switch.
- D. You can only apply firewall filters to Layer 2 traffic on an EX Series switch.

Answer: A,B

Explanation:

A is correct because you can deploy only stateless firewall filters on an EX Series switch. A stateless firewall filter is a filter that evaluates each packet individually based on the header information, such as source and destination addresses, protocol, and port numbers. A stateless firewall filter does not keep track of the state or context of a packet flow, such as the sequence number, flags, or session information. EX Series switches support only stateless firewall filters, which are also called access control lists (ACLs) or packet filters.

C is correct because you can apply firewall filters to both Layer 2 and Layer 3 traffic on an EX Series switch. Layer 2 traffic is traffic that is switched within a VLAN or a bridge domain, while Layer 3 traffic is traffic that is routed between VLANs or networks. EX Series switches support three types of firewall filters: port (Layer 2) firewall filters, VLAN firewall filters, and router (Layer 3) firewall filters. You can apply these filters to different interfaces and directions to control the traffic entering or exiting the switch.

NEW QUESTION # 140

Which statement is correct about IP-IP tunnels?

- A. The TTL in the inner packet is decremented during transit to the tunnel endpoint.
- B. There are 24 bytes of overhead with IP-IP encapsulation.
- C. IP-IP tunnels only support encapsulating IP traffic.
- D. IP-IP tunnels only support encapsulating non-IP traffic.

Answer: C

Explanation:

"The ENCAPSULATOR does not change the inner IP header, except to decrement the TTL and it remains unchanged during its deliver to the endpoint" - only router that encapsulates the inner packet decrements its TTL - during transit, the inner packet is unchanged.

NEW QUESTION # 141

What is the default hello interval on an OSPF interface?

- A. 20 seconds
- B. 60 seconds
- C. 30 seconds
- D. 10 seconds

Answer: D
