IIBA Entry Certificate in Business Analysis (ECBA) Sample Questions (Q78-Q83):

NEW QUESTION # 78

The approach that defines how requirements will be re-used is the:

- A. approach to identifying business analysis improvements.
- B. information management approach.
- C. business analysis approach.
- D. governance approach.

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 79

Which techniques should be applied to prioritize requirements?

- A. Decision Modelling and Estimation
- B. Document Analysis and Vendor Assessment
- C. Interface Analysis and Interviews
- D. Risk Analysis and Management

Answer: A

Explanation:

Decision Modelling and Estimation are techniques that can be applied to prioritize requirements effectively. Decision modelling helps in understanding the implications of various choices and selecting the best course of action based on the analysis. Estimation provides insights into the effort and resources required to fulfill the requirements, which is crucial for prioritization, especially when resources are limited or when there are time constraints.

NEW QUESTION # 80

Requirements allocation is an element of which task?

- A. Define requirements architecture
- B. Verify requirements
- C. Specify and model requirements
- D. Define design options

Answer: C

Explanation:

The purpose of Define Design Options is to define the solution approach, identify opportunities to improve the business, allocate requirements across solution components, and represent design options that achieve the desired future state. Requirements allocation is the process of assigning requirements to solution components and releases to best achieve the objectives.

NEW QUESTION # 81

When undertaking requirements verification, who determines if the requirements captured are of good quality?

- A. Business analysis professional writing them
- B. Stakeholders using them
- C. Project manager reviewing them
- D. Business customers once delivered

Answer: B

Explanation:

When undertaking requirements verification, the stakeholders who will be using the requirements are best positioned to determine if they are of good quality. These stakeholders have the practical experience and understanding of their needs and the context in which the requirements will be used. Their feedback ensures that the requirements are relevant, complete, and feasible. Involving stakeholders in the verification process helps in aligning the requirements with actual business needs and ensures that the final solution will be effective and satisfactory.
