CompTIA Project+ Certification Exam Sample Questions (Q410-Q415):

NEW QUESTION # 410

A project team that handles sensitive data analysis recently onboarded three new employees. Which of the following should the PM do first?

- A. Execute an analysis of the sensitive data
- B. Check employee security clearance
- C. Allow access to the internet on corporate computers
- D. Train the new employees to handle sensitive data

Answer: B

Explanation:

When onboarding new staff who will handle sensitive data, the PM must first verify their security clearance or authorization. Only authorized personnel should access sensitive systems or datasets. Training follows after confirming clearance. Data analysis itself should never begin until security requirements are validated.

NEW QUESTION # 412

A member keeps bringing up unrelated topics during a team meeting. Which of the following should the project manager do to keep the discussion on track?

- A. Adjust the current meeting's agenda to accommodate the team member's topics.
- B. Allow the team member to bring up the topics, which could lead to important discussions and insights.
- C. Remind the team member about the meeting agenda and invite the member to add the topic to the next meeting's agenda.
- D. Ask the team member to leave the meeting and create a new meeting to discuss these topics.

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 413

A critical business initiative introduced new processes and technology to the organization. Which of the following approaches should be used to ensure the deliverables are increasingly adopted and leveraged by the organization over time?

- A. New user kickoff meeting

- B. Monthly feedback and training sessions
- C. Management directives to use the new system
- D. Creation of a social news forum

Answer: B

Explanation:

Monthly feedback and training sessions are the best approach to ensure that the deliverables of a critical business initiative are increasingly adopted and leveraged by the organization over time. Feedback and training sessions are communication and learning activities that provide information and guidance on how to use and benefit from the new processes and technology introduced by the initiative. Feedback and training sessions can help to increase awareness, understanding, acceptance, and adoption of the deliverables among the organization's employees and stakeholders. They can also help to identify and address any issues or challenges that may arise during the implementation and transition phases.

NEW QUESTION # 414

A company purchases new software. The project manager needs to present the new software's features to the stakeholders. Which of the following meeting types should the project manager and stakeholders have?

- A. Focus
- B. Status
- C. Informative
- D. Brainstorming

Answer: C

Explanation:

An Informative meeting is designed to share information, such as presenting new software features to stakeholders. This type of meeting ensures that all participants are informed about the software's capabilities and how it will impact their work.

According to the CompTIA Project+ PK0-005 exam objectives, under Domain 1.8: Compare and contrast communication management concepts, recognizing different meeting types, including informative meetings, is essential for effective communication management.
