 2. Periodic internal reviews through self-assessments.
 3. Assessments conducted by a qualified external reviewer at least once every five years.
- A. 1 only
 - B. 2 and 3 only
 - C. 1 and 2 only
 - D. 1, 2, and 3

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 630

A consumer electronics company is considering acquiring a small flash memory manufacturer. An internal auditor has been assigned to determine if the manufacturer's accounts payable contain all outstanding liabilities. Which audit procedure is not relevant for this objective?

- A. Verify the period of liability of subsequent cash disbursements using related supporting documentation.
- B. Send confirmations, including zero-balance accounts, to vendors with whom the manufacturer normally does business.
- C. Verify a sample of accounts payable by using related invoices, receiving reports, and purchase orders.
- D. Trace receiving reports issued before the period end to the accounts payable list and vendor invoices.

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 631

Due to a recent system upgrade, an audit is planned to test the payroll process. Which of the following audit objectives would be most important to prevent fraud?

- A. Verify that recipients are valid employees.
- B. Verify that benefits deductions are accurate.
- C. Verify that amounts are correct.

- D. Verify that payments are on time.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 632

The chief audit executive of an international organization is planning an audit of the treasury function located at the organization's headquarters. The current internal audit team at headquarters lacks expertise in the area of financial markets which is needed for the engagement. When of the following would be the most appropriate solution considering the time constraint?

- A. Hire additional internal auditors who have expertise in the area of financial markets.
- B. Outsource the engagement to the organization's external auditor who has expertise in the area of financial markets.
- C. Invite a guest auditor from one of the organization's affiliates who has expertise in the area of financial markets.
- D. Limit the scope of the engagement to the knowledge and skills possessed by the internal audit team.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Given the time constraint and the need for specialized knowledge in financial markets, inviting a guest auditor from one of the organization's affiliates who has the required expertise is the most appropriate solution. This approach leverages existing internal resources with the necessary skills, which can be more efficient and cost-effective than hiring new staff or outsourcing the engagement. Additionally, it facilitates knowledge sharing and can help build internal audit capacity for future engagements.
