CompTIA A+ Certification Exam: Core 1 Sample Questions (Q108-Q113):

NEW QUESTION # 108
A technician is experimenting with network configurations and has connected two laptops to an unmanaged switch. The technician configured one of the laptops with a static IP address of 192.168.1.1 and the other with a static IP address of 192.168.2.2. The laptops are not communicating with each other. Which of the following is the most likely explanation for this issue?

- A. The laptops do not have access to a router.
- B. The technician needs to use a hub instead of a switch.
- C. The wireless NICs are malfunctioning.
- D. PoE interferes with intersubnet communication.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 109

An IT specialist compares Bluetooth and NFC technologies for mobile device connectivity. Which of the following statements accurately describes a key difference between the two?

- A. NFC consumes more power than Bluetooth, making it less suitable for devices in which battery conservation is crucial.
- B. NFC is faster than Bluetooth when transferring large files between devices.
- C. NFC requires pairing with the receiving host, whereas Bluetooth just needs the available connection.
- D. NFC works best within a few centimeters, but Bluetooth can connect devices that are up to 32ft (10m) apart.

Answer: D

Explanation:
NFC (Near-Field Communication)operates atvery short ranges usually less than 4cm, and is ideal for quick, secure transactions like contactless payments.Bluetoothsupportslonger ranges (up to 10 meters or 32 feet)and is suited for ongoing connections like wireless headsets or file transfers.
Option A:Bluetooth is faster for large file transfers.
Option B:NFC usesless power, not more.
Option C:NFC doesnotrequire pairing Bluetooth does.
CompTIA A+ Core 1 Exam Objective Reference:
Objective 1.5: Given a scenario, connect and configure accessories and ports of mobile devices.

NEW QUESTION # 110

Which connector is used to uplink a new ISP cable modem to its wall jack?

- A. LC
- B. RJ45
- C. Lightning
- D. F-type

Answer: D

Explanation:
Cable modems supplied by ISPs connect to the coaxial wall outlet using an F-type connector. CompTIA A+ specifies that F-type connectors are threaded coaxial connectors used in broadband cable internet, cable TV, and some satellite systems. They attach to RG-6 or RG-59 coaxial cable and provide a secure, shielded connection to the cable provider's infrastructure.
The cable modem requires this coaxial uplink to receive downstream and upstream signals from the ISP before converting them into Ethernet on the LAN side.
LC (B) is for fiber optic connectors, not coaxial. RJ45 (C) is an Ethernet connector and is used on the LAN side of the modem-not on the wall uplink. Lightning (D) is an Apple connector and irrelevant to networking hardware.
Thus, the correct connector for the ISP cable modem uplink is F-type.

NEW QUESTION # 111

Which of the following connectors can be used to charge most modern mobile devices and may have the capacity to send data audio and video?

- A. Lightning
- B. MiniUSB
- C. MicroUSB

- D. USB-C

Answer: D

Explanation:
B:USB-C:
USB-C is a versatile connector that supports charging, high-speed data transfer, and the ability to send audio and video signals (e.g., DisplayPort over USB-C).
It is used by most modern mobile devices and laptops because of its fast transfer speeds and power delivery capabilities.
Incorrect Options:
A: Lightning: Lightning is proprietary to Apple devices and does not natively support video output.
C: MicroUSB: MicroUSB is outdated and does not support video output.
D: MiniUSB: MiniUSB is an older standard and does not support modern features like video output or fast charging.
Key Takeaway: USB-C is the most versatile connector for charging and transferring data, audio, and video.

NEW QUESTION # 112
A technician has built a new computer. On the initial startup, the computer passes POST but will not turn on the operating system. Which of the following components has failed?

- A. CPU
- B. Audio card
- C. Power supply
- D. HDD

Answer: D

Explanation:
When a newly built computer successfully passes POST, it indicates that the CPU, RAM, motherboard, video output, and other essential components are functioning at a hardware level. POST will typically fail or display error codes if there are problems with the CPU, RAM, GPU, or power delivery. Therefore, the fact that POST succeeds allows us to eliminate those components from suspicion.
The issue arises after POST, when the system attempts to load an operating system. For the OS to load, the BIOS/UEFI must detect a working storage device-such as an HDD, SSD, or NVMe drive-containing a bootable OS. If the computer cannot locate or read the drive, the system will halt at a boot error, such as "No boot device found," "Insert boot media," or similar messages. This is consistent with a failed or improperly connected HDD.
A failed HDD prevents access to boot files, even though the rest of the system hardware functions normally.
Audio cards are irrelevant to booting. A failed CPU would cause a POST failure, not an OS loading issue. A faulty power supply would affect system stability during POST, not specifically OS boot failure unless the system is not powering at all.
Thus, the failed component is the HDD.
