NEW QUESTION # 539

A security analyst is trying to detect connections to a suspicious IP address by collecting the packet captures from the gateway. Which of the following commands should the security analyst consider running?

- A. `cat packets.pcap | grep [IP Address]`
- B. `tcpdump -n -r packets.pcap host [IP address]`

- C. `grep [IP address] packets.pcap`
- D. `strings packets.pcap | grep [IP Address]`

Answer: B

Explanation:

Explanation

`tcpdump` is a command-line tool that can capture and analyze network packets from a given interface or file.

The `-n` option prevents `tcpdump` from resolving hostnames, which can speed up the analysis. The `-r` option reads packets from a file, in this case `packets.pcap`. The host `[IP address]` filter specifies that `tcpdump` should only display packets that have the given IP address as either the source or the destination. This command can help the security analyst detect connections to a suspicious IP address by collecting the packet captures from the gateway. Official References:

Start time	Detection time	Time elapsed in minutes
7:20 a.m.	10:30 a.m.	180
12:00 a.m.	2:30 a.m.	150
9:25 a.m.	12:15 p.m.	170
3:25 p.m.	5:45 p.m.	140

- A. 0
- B. 1
- C. 2
- D. 3

Answer: C

Explanation:

The MTTD (Mean Time To Detect) is calculated by averaging the time elapsed in detecting incidents. From the given data:

$(180+150+170+140)/4 = 160$ minutes. This is the correct answer according to the CompTIA CySA+ CS0-003 Certification Study Guide1, Chapter 4, page 161.
