Which activity contributes MOST to achieving the 'align with priorities' principle?

- A. By specifying the skills necessary for the target operating model to work effectively
- B. By designing a clear target operating model allowing stakeholders from different organizations to be committed to the same end goals
- C. By avoiding the misalignment of the vision, benefits, and target operating model with the programme priorities
- D. By understanding the relationship between the outputs and the organizational objectives

Answer: C

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract:

The "Align with Priorities" principle emphasizes that the programme must remain aligned with the organization's evolving strategic direction. This requires ongoing adjustment of outputs, outcomes, and the vision to avoid misalignment.

MSP Foundation, 5th Edition states:

"Alignment with priorities is achieved by ensuring the vision, benefits, and design of the target operating model remain consistent with current strategic needs." Therefore, option D is correct.
