PMI Cognitive Project Management in AI CPMAI v7 - Training & Certification Exam Sample Questions (Q64-Q69):

NEW QUESTION # 64

As an organization building an AI solution for your current customers based in NYC, but with possible plans for future expansion, how should you handle worldwide AI laws and regulations?

- A. Make sure to follow relevant data, privacy, and other important laws both in the US and where you're likely to expand to in the coming year
- B. Make sure to follow relevant data, privacy, and other important laws as it pertains to NYC
- C. You're too small of an organization to be worried about laws at the moment
- D. Make sure to follow relevant data, privacy, and other important laws as it pertains to the United States

Answer: A

Explanation:

CPMAI's Trustworthy AI - Navigating AI Regulations and Frameworks tasks require continuously monitoring "AI-relevant data privacy laws and regulations" both where you operate today and where you plan to expand . Furthermore, the Workbook's Task: Required Compliance with Regulations and Laws instructs teams to identify all laws and regulations that might apply based on location, industry, and other factors, ensuring legal and liability risks are addressed before operationalization .

NEW QUESTION # 65

You're testing your model and it is overly sensitive to the fluctuations of data and having trouble generalizing. What type of problem is this?

- A. You are underfitting the data
- B. You are overfitting the data
- C. You have selected the wrong algorithm
- D. You have selected the wrong data

Answer: B

Explanation:

Overfitting occurs when a model learns not only the underlying patterns but also the noise in the training data, causing it to perform well on seen data but poorly on unseen data. The CPMAI Glossary defines overfitting as "a modeling error where a model learns the training data too well, including its noise, resulting in poor performance on new data."

NEW QUESTION # 66

Your team is running a simulation-based optimization exercise to increase routing efficiency. Learning for this exercise is done through "trial and error." Which type of machine learning approach is being leveraged for this exercise?

- A. Reinforcement Learning
- B. All would work equally well
- C. Supervised Learning
- D. Unsupervised Learning
- E. Reinforcement Learning is defined in CPMAI as the paradigm where agents learn optimal actions via interactions labeled by reward/punishment signals-essentially a "trial and error" process. Domain III of the CPMAI Exam Content Outline covers "Design reinforcement learning approaches with appropriate agents and environments," confirming that simulation-based, trial-and-error optimization is the hallmark of Reinforcement Learning .

Answer: E

NEW QUESTION # 67

Your team is looking for a short term ROI project and decides that an AI-enabled chatbot will be the project to start with. During Phase I of CPMAI you go through the AI Go/No Go decision chart and realize that you have not answered yes to all the business feasibility questions. You and the team have not determined a clear problem definition. What's the best course of action with how to proceed?

- A. Move forward with the project as planned. The problem definition will become clear later on in the project.
- B. Do not move forward and cancel the project altogether.
- C. Cautiously move forward as planned. You do not need to answer yes to all the questions in the AI Go /No Go decision chart to start your project.
- D. Do not move forward until you can determine a clear problem definition.

Answer: D

Explanation:

In Phase I's AI Go/No Go task group, the Business Feasibility step mandates that every business-feasibility question-including a clear problem definition-must be answered "Go" before proceeding. If any critical feasibility criteria remain unanswered or "No Go," the project must pause and resolve those uncertainties rather than advance prematurely.

NEW QUESTION # 68

During CPMAI Phase II, it's important to not only understand the sources of your data but also what data is required for training as well as identifying the features that are required.

When looking to gather data, what approach is best when determining how much data you need?

- A. The "less is better" approach
- B. The "Goldilocks" approach
- C. There is no correct approach
- D. The "more is better" approach

Answer: B

Explanation:

Phase II: Data Understanding centers on identifying just the right amount of data for model training-neither too little (risking underfitting) nor too much (wasting resources and introducing noise). This balanced-"Goldilocks"-approach ensures you collect sufficient high-quality, relevant records to meet cognitive objectives without incurring unnecessary cost or complexity.
