問題 #91

You are working on a social media application. You plan to add a feature that allows users to upload images. These images will be 2 MB - 1 GB in size. You want to minimize their infrastructure operations overhead for this feature. What should you do?

- A. Change the application to accept images directly and store them in the database that stores other user information.
- B. Create a separate bucket for each user in Cloud Storage. Assign a separate service account to allow write access on each bucket. Transfer service account credentials to the client application based on user information. The application uses this service account to upload images to Cloud Storage.
- C. Change the application to create signed URLs for Cloud Storage. Transfer these signed URLs to the client application to upload images to Cloud Storage.
- D. Set up a web server on GCP to accept user images and create a file store to keep uploaded files. Change the application to retrieve images from the file store.

答案: C

問題 #92

You want to notify on-call engineers about a service degradation in production while minimizing development time. What should you do?

- A. Use Stackdriver Error Reporting to capture errors and raise alerts.
- B. Use Stackdriver Monitoring to monitor resources and raise alerts.
- C. Use Cloud Function to monitor resources and raise alerts.
- D. Use Cloud Pub/Sub to monitor resources and raise alerts.

答案: B

解題說明:

Error Reporting is not about service degradation, more, Error Reporting uses Monitoring to send alerts.

問題 #93

Your company has a data warehouse that keeps your application information in BigQuery. The BigQuery data warehouse keeps 2 PBs of user data. Recently, your company expanded your user base to include EU users and needs to comply with these requirements:

Your company must be able to delete all user account information upon user request.

All EU user data must be stored in a single region specifically for EU users.

Which two actions should you take? (Choose two.)

- A. Create a Cloud Storage bucket in the EU region to store information for EU users only.
- B. Use BigQuery federated queries to query data from Cloud Storage.
- C. Use DML statements in BigQuery to update/delete user records based on their requests.
- D. Create a dataset in the EU region that will keep information about EU users only.
- E. Re-upload your data using to a Cloud Dataflow pipeline by filtering your user records out.

答案: A,C

問題 #94

You are about to deploy an application hosted on a Compute Engine instance with Windows OS and Cloud SQL. You plan to use the Cloud SQL Auth Proxy for connectivity to the Cloud SQL instance. You plan to follow Google-recommended practices and the principle of least privilege.

You have already created a custom service account. What should you do next?

- A. Grant the custom service account the roles/cloudsql.editor role.
- B. Grant the custom service account the roles/cloudsql.client role. Adjust the Cloud SQL Auth Proxy start command to use the --unix-socket CLI option.
- C. Grant the custom service account the roles/cloudsql.viewer role. Adjust the Cloud SQL Auth Proxy start command to specify your instance connection name.
- D. Create and assign a custom role with the cloudsql.instances.connect permission to the custom service account. Adjust the Cloud SQL Auth Proxy start command to specify your instance connection name.

答案： B

問題 #95

You are a developer working on an internal application for payroll processing. You are building a component of the application that allows an employee to submit a timesheet, which then initiates several steps:

- * An email is sent to the employee and manager, notifying them that the timesheet was submitted.
- * A timesheet is sent to payroll processing for the vendor's API.
- * A timesheet is sent to the data warehouse for headcount planning.

These steps are not dependent on each other and can be completed in any order. New steps are being considered and will be implemented by different development teams. Each development team will implement the error handling specific to their step. What should you do?

- A. Create a timesheet microservice deployed to Google Kubernetes Engine. The microservice calls each downstream step and waits for a successful response before calling the next step.
- B. Create a Pub/Sub topic for timesheet submissions. Create a subscription for each downstream development team to subscribe to the topic.
- C. Create a Pub/Sub topic for each step. Create a subscription for each downstream development team to subscribe to their step's topic.
- D. Deploy a Cloud Function for each step that calls the corresponding downstream system to complete the required action.

答案： B
