CompTIA Cloud Essentials+ Certification Exam Sample Questions (Q238-Q243):

NEW QUESTION # 238
Which of the following best facilitates a software company's adoption of a DevOps approach to development when operating in a cloud environment?

- A. Auto-scaling
- B. Upgrades and patching

- C. Templates
- D. Infrastructure as code

Answer: D

Explanation:
Infrastructure as code (IaC) allows developers and operations teams to manage and provision cloud infrastructure using machine-readable configuration files, making it easier to automate and streamline the deployment and management of resources. This practice aligns well with the DevOps approach by enabling automation, consistency, and scalability, thus facilitating collaboration between development and operations teams in a cloud environment.
