Unlike other professional exams that may only require knowledge and skills in a narrow field of study, the AICP exam is comprehensive and covers multiple disciplines. AICP exam evaluates skills in urban planning, regional planning, transportation planning, environmental planning, and many other areas. As a result, passing the AICP exam demonstrates a deep understanding of planning principles and an ability to apply them to a wide range of planning projects.

The AICP certification exam is a rigorous test that requires thorough preparation and study. AICP exam tests the candidate's knowledge in various areas such as ethics, planning history, plan implementation, and other theoretical and practical aspects of planning practice. AICP Exam is designed to assess the abilities of a planner to analyze, plan, and develop solutions and recommendations that meet the needs of communities.

The AICP certification exam is a critical element within the AICP organization. AICP exam provides evidence of individuals who meet the basic requirements to be a professional planner, including having comprehensive knowledge in the field of planning. Certification is a benchmark for competent and ethical professional behavior, and with it, a planning professional is recognized for their level of expertise in the profession.

APA American Institute of Certified Planners Exam Sample Questions (Q45-Q50):

NEW QUESTION # 45

Scenario

You are a planner in a city that has recently opened a new shelter for homeless people. The shelter opens each evening during the winter and provides a place for people to sleep during the night in dormitory-style rooms with cots. Some community members would like the shelter closed because they feel that the large number of people who congregate on the sidewalks near the shelter as they wait for it to open pose a threat to public safety. Your planning director decides to address these concerns by classifying the shelter as a hotel. The planning director knows that the zoning ordinance specifies that a hotel must provide private sleeping quarters, which the shelter does not. By classifying the shelter as a hotel, the planning director is taking steps to close the shelter based on the ground that it is in violation of the zoning ordinance. What might you do first?

Answer:

Explanation:

See the solution below

Explanation

You might gather additional information about the situation to be sure you fully understand it. You might find out if alternative locations for the shelter are feasible and if the shelter operators are aware of these alternatives. For example, you might locate a space where people may wait indoors until the shelter opens.

You also might talk to the planning director about the situation so that you understand the reasoning behind the decision. You base your next move on your findings

NEW QUESTION # 46

Which of the following techniques is least appropriate in the early stages of presenting a development project to the public?

- A. Displaying a scale model of the project
- B. Describing the project objectives
- C. Comparing alternative designs
- D. Presenting the results of a needs assessment

Answer: A

Explanation:

In the early stages of presenting a development project, the focus should be on introducing the project's purpose and gathering public input, not on detailed design elements. Option B (displaying a scale model) is least appropriate, as it presents a specific design solution before the public has had a chance to provide input, potentially alienating stakeholders. The APA's AICP Certification Exam Content Outline(2022), under "Communication and Interaction," advises that "early public engagement should focus on project goals, needs, and community input, avoiding detailed designs like models that may preempt feedback." Options A (describing objectives), C (needs assessment), and D (comparing alternatives) are appropriate early steps to inform and engage the public. The CPC Study Manual(2024) states, "In early stages, avoid presenting specific designs like scale models, as they may limit public input-focus on objectives and needs instead," supporting option B.

NEW QUESTION # 47

How many subjects are in the short form of the US Census?

- A. 0
- B. 1
- C. 2
- D. 3

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 48

Scenario

You are responsible for recommending contracts to the city council. Your immediate supervisor has asked you to prepare a recommendation for a large contract for an individual you know is a good friend of your supervisor. After reviewing the contract, you conclude that the contract amount is not commensurate with the scope of work provided. You believe the contract is a waste of taxpayer dollars if it were to be granted. What might you do first?

Answer:

Explanation:

See the solution below

Explanation

The first thing to do might be to carefully review the data and procedures used in the analysis for accuracy and completeness (Ethical Principle 1). You should document everything during this entire process such as the date and nature of your supervisor's request and the sources of data used to draw the conclusion that the consultant's price is too high. Then write your report and submit it to your supervisor.
