NEW QUESTION # 310

Which of the following is NOT the advantage of proprietary officers?

- A. Impartiality
- B. Loyalty

- C. Prestige
- D. Quality of personnel

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 311

Some people are willing to copy software and resell it or give it away; this authorized copying of copyrighted computer programs is called:

- A. Unauthorized access to software
- B. Identity theft
- C. War driving
- D. Software piracy

Answer: D

Explanation:

Software piracy is the unauthorized copying, distribution, or use of copyrighted software. This includes reselling or giving away licensed programs without proper authorization from the copyright holder.

Identity theft (A) involves stealing personal information.

War driving (B) is about locating open Wi-Fi networks.

Unauthorized access to software (C) is related but not specific to copying and distribution.

NEW QUESTION # 312

A company has selected a project manager to upgrade security at its manufacturing plants. A risk assessment for each plant has been completed. Which of the following is the first action of the project manager?

- A. Develop a phased implementation plan
- B. Develop a concept design to solicit support from senior management
- C. Solicit a request for information
- D. Have construction documents prepared and sent to prospective contractors for bids

Answer: B

Explanation:

After a risk assessment is completed, the first step for a project manager is to create a concept design. This outlines the proposed system and supports budget justification and strategic alignment with management's objectives. Gaining senior management buy-in is essential before progressing to detailed design or procurement.

A (RFI) may follow concept approval.

C (Construction documents) are created much later.

D (Implementation planning) is dependent on approved design and funding.

NEW QUESTION # 313

To ensure consistent bid submissions, a walk-through of affected buildings and locations should be conducted at the:

- A. Invitation for bid
- B. Engineering evaluation
- C. Pre-bid conference
- D. Procurement meeting

Answer: C

Explanation:

A pre-bid conference allows all prospective bidders to gain a clear and consistent understanding of the project requirements, including walkthroughs of affected facilities. This helps ensure uniformity in bid proposals and reduces ambiguity or scope misinterpretation.

A (Engineering evaluation) is internal and technical.

C (Invitation for bid) is a document, not an event.

D (Procurement meeting) is not a standard pre-bid process phase.

NEW QUESTION # 314

What results from fearing the consequences of being caught; and is a product of reasoning?

- A. Speech honesty
- B. Conduct
- C. Integrity
- D. Conditional honesty

Answer: D

Explanation:

Conditional honesty is a behavior pattern where a person acts honestly primarily due to the fear of being caught or facing consequences. Unlike integrity, which is internal and moral-based, conditional honesty is external and consequence-based. It is considered a product of reasoning and is a key concept in evaluating personnel risk in security-sensitive roles.
