CCE Global Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination (CPCE) Sample Questions (Q40-Q45):

NEW QUESTION # 40

Accreditation of counselor preparation programs is important to ensure

- A. that counselor trainees receive the best possible education.
- B. that credentialed counselors are competent to practice.
- C. consistency in counselor training across the country.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Accreditation ensures that counselor preparation programs adhere to nationally recognized standards, which provides consistency in training across the country. This consistency helps guarantee that all graduates meet baseline competencies, regardless of the institution attended. While competency and quality education are also important outcomes, the central purpose of accreditation is to standardize and assure consistency in the education and training of counselors.

NEW QUESTION # 41

During a counseling session, a client who is notably upset about spousal extramarital affairs discloses ownership of a gun and intention to make the spouse pay. In this case, a professional counselor would be expected to

- A. follow federal guidelines for reporting a homicidal client.
- B. arrange an additional session to evaluate the client's lethality.
- C. warn others of the client's intentions to do harm.

Answer: C

Explanation:

When a client discloses an intention to harm someone, counselors are ethically and legally required to take reasonable steps to warn the potential victim and/or notify authorities. This is known as the "duty to warn" (from the landmark Tarasoff v. Regents of the University of California case). The counselor must breach confidentiality if there is a clear threat of violence to an identifiable person.

- B. obtain information from former members at least twice.
- C. provide specific referral sources for members who need further support.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Providing specific referral sources for members who need further support after a group experience is an essential component of ethical and effective follow-up. This helps ensure continuity of care and assists members in accessing additional resources as needed.

"Role reversal and future projection are hallmark interventions in psychodrama groups, providing opportunities for experiential learning and catharsis." Reference: Helwig, A. A. (2020).
