NEW QUESTION # 65

What is one key to leading a successful change?

- A. Sustaining deceleration
- B. Forming a strategic vision

- C. Instituting traditions
- D. Generating long-term wins

Answer: B

Explanation:

Forming a strategic vision is one key to leading a successful change. A strategic vision is a clear and compelling statement that describes what the organization wants to achieve in the future. A strategic vision helps leaders communicate the purpose, direction, and benefits of the change to all stakeholders, inspire them to embrace the change, align their actions with the desired outcomes, and measure their progress and success. NEW QUESTION # 66

User business value and time criticality are components of what?

- A. Cost of Delay
- B. Product Vision
- C. Feature Acceptance Criteria
- D. Story point estimation

Answer: A

Explanation:

User business value and time criticality are components of cost of delay. Cost of delay is a way of quantifying the economic impact of delaying the delivery of a product or feature. Cost of delay consists of four factors: user or customer value, time criticality, risk reduction or opportunity enablement value, and job size or duration. Cost of delay is used to prioritize features using Weighted Shortest Job First (WSJF), which is a method that maximizes the economic value delivered by a product development flow.
