IIBA Entry Certificate in Business Analysis (ECBA) Sample Questions (Q14-Q19):

NEW QUESTION # 14

Which core concept defines a specific way of satisfying one or more needs in a context?

- A. Priority
- B. Solution
- C. Change
- D. Value

Answer: B

Explanation:

The core concept that defines a specific way of satisfying one or more needs in a context is 'Solution'.

According to the Business Analysis Core Concept Model (BACCM), a solution satisfies a need by resolving a problem faced by stakeholders or enabling stakeholders to take advantage of an opportunity. It is a specific response to a need within a given context, and it can vary significantly from one organization to another as different organizations or situations may require different solutions.

References: This explanation is consistent with the definitions provided in the Business Analysis Core Concept Model (BACCM) as outlined by the International Institute of Business Analysis (IIBA) and the Business Analysis Body of Knowledge (BABOK) guide1234.

NEW QUESTION # 15

What requirements are good candidates for reuse?

- A. Requirements without direct ties to a particular tool
- B. Requirements at low levels of abstraction
- C. Requirements with specific references to departments
- D. Requirements expressed in more detail

Answer: A

Explanation:

Requirements that are represented in a general manner, without direct ties to a particular tool or organizational structure, tend to be more reusable.

NEW QUESTION # 16

Which of the following tasks is used to ensure that requirements and designs at different levels are aligned to one another?

- A. Gather requirements
- B. Trace requirements
- C. Verify requirements
- D. Analyze requirements

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 17

When reporting business analysis performance, what does the measure of significance indicate?

- A. The value delivered by the work products justified the investment to produce them.
- B. The work products were delivered at a time that fit stakeholder expectations.
- C. The work products were both complete and accurate.
- D. The business objectives were met, problems were solved, and improvements achieved.

Answer: A

Explanation:

The measure of significance in reporting business analysis performance refers to how well the value delivered by the BA work products justifies the effort and resources invested. It focuses on whether the deliverables contributed meaningful value to the organization and whether they supported decision-making, change enablement, or strategic goals.

BABOK Reference - Task: Assess Business Analysis Performance (Section 3.5):

"Significance assesses the value delivered by the business analysis work and whether it justifies the resources expended."
