VMware Cloud Foundation 5.2 Administrator Sample Questions (Q128-Q133):

NEW QUESTION # 128

An administrator needs to deploy a Kubernetes cluster on a vSphere IaaS control plane (formerly vSphere with Tanzu) to host a new application.

Which three steps should be followed to successfully deploy the Kubernetes cluster? (Choose three.)

- A. Configure a vSphere Namespace and assign resource quotas.
- B. Create a new VM template for the Kubernetes nodes.
- C. , Deploy a vSphere Pod Service.
- D. Configure a Load Balancer for the Kubernetes control plane nodes.

- E. Enable Workload Management on the vSphere Cluster.

Answer: A,D,E

Explanation:

A Load Balancer is needed for the Kubernetes control plane nodes to distribute traffic across the control plane and ensure high availability for the Kubernetes management layer.

A vSphere Namespace must be configured to define a logical boundary for Kubernetes workloads, and resource quotas help ensure that resources are allocated appropriately for the workloads.

Enabling Workload Management on the vSphere Cluster is necessary to integrate Kubernetes with vSphere and manage the lifecycle of Kubernetes clusters using vSphere with Tanzu.

NEW QUESTION # 129

An organization requires granular control over vCenter permissions and they need to assign roles to specific user groups. Which three steps must be followed to assign roles to users or groups in vCenter? (Choose three.)

- A. Manually add each user to the role.
- B. Navigate to the vSphere Client and choose the object for which they want to assign permissions.
- C. Choose the role to assign from the predefined list of roles.
- D. Choose 'Add Permission' from the context menu.
- E. Assign the role to a user or group from the identity source.

Answer: B,C,D

Explanation:

To assign roles to users or groups in vCenter, you first need to navigate to the vSphere Client and select the object (such as a datacenter, cluster, or host) where the permissions will be applied.

After selecting the object, you use the 'Add Permission' option from the context menu to start the process of assigning permissions.

You then select the role you want to assign, which will be from the predefined list of roles in vCenter. These roles define the level of access for the user or group.

NEW QUESTION # 130

An administrator is tasked with deploying a new, highly-available application on a VMware Cloud Foundation (VCF)-based private cloud. The new application will include both virtual machines and containers.

Which two components of VCF could the administrator use to complete the task? (Choose two.)

- A. Aria operations
- B. Aria Suite Lifecycle
- C. Supervisor
- D. NSX
- E. HCX

Answer: C,D

Explanation:

NSX provides the networking, security, and load-balancing services needed for high availability, while vSphere Supervisor enables Kubernetes integration alongside VMs, allowing you to run and manage containerized workloads on the same platform.

NEW QUESTION # 131

What are two benefits of enabling workload Management on a vSphere Cluster within a VI Workload Domain using SDDC Manager? (Choose two.)

- A. It enhances the security of the vSphere cluster.
- B. It integrates the vSphere supervisor with NSX Networking.
- C. It allows the deployment of traditional VMs with enhanced performance.
- D. It enables the use of Kubernetes for container orchestration on the vSphere cluster.
- E. It integrates vSphere with third-party cloud providers.

Answer: B,D

Explanation:

Workload Management integrates the vSphere Supervisor with NSX networking to provide Kubernetes control plane connectivity. It enables Kubernetes-based container orchestration directly on the vSphere cluster via the Supervisor control plane.

NEW QUESTION # 132

An organization is looking to streamline its IT service delivery by automating the deployment of applications and infrastructure across its hybrid cloud environment.

Which VMware Aria Suite component should they use?

- A. Aria Operations for Logs
- B. Aria Operations
- C. Aria Operations for Networks
- D. Aria Automation

Answer: D

Explanation:

Aria Automation (formerly vRealize Automation) is designed to automate the deployment of applications and infrastructure across hybrid cloud environments. It enables the provisioning, management, and orchestration of IT services, helping organizations streamline their service delivery.
