Huawei HCSA-Field-Intelligent Collaboration V1.0 Sample Questions (Q37-Q42):

NEW QUESTION # 37

Which function does the Huawei MCU web portal NOT support?

- A. Hardware status
- B. Power on
- C. One-click information collection
- D. Logs collection

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 38

The advantages of optical anti-blue light over software anti-blue light are ().

- A. No need manually to enable this feature.
- B. Lower proportion of harmful blue light.
- C. The picture has no color cast.
- D. All of the above.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Optical Anti-Blue Light is a hardware-based solution that shifts the peak wavelength of harmful blue light (415nm-455nm) to a safer range at the source (LED backlight).

* No color cast (A): Unlike software filters that apply a yellow/orange tint to the screen, optical filtering maintains accurate, natural color reproduction.

* Lower harmful light (B): It physically reduces up to 60% of high-energy short-wave blue light while preserving color depth.

* Always-on (C): Because it is built into the backlight, it is active 100% of the time without requiring the user to navigate menus or enable "Night Mode" manually.

NEW QUESTION # 39

Which statements are correct about Huawei SMC resource pool management? (Select all that apply)

- A. The system automatically schedules resources to the best-performing MCU and CloudRSE based on resource usage.
- B. Smooth switchover without interruption of calls when an MCU is faulty.
- C. Inter-region interaction and automatic MCU cascading.
- D. MCU resources can be dynamically released, and scheduled conferences do not occupy resources.

Answer: A,B,C,D

Explanation:

Huawei SMC3.0 introduced advanced Resource Pool Management features:

* Option A: The SMC monitors the load and performance of all MCUs/RSEs in a pool, automatically routing new calls to the node with the most available capacity (Load Balancing).

* Option B: If a physical MCU fails, the SMC can migrate participants to another active MCU in the pool to ensure high availability and meeting continuity.

* Option C: Resources (like media ports) are allocated only when a conference actually starts. Simply "scheduling" a meeting doesn't consume live hardware ports, allowing for higher efficiency.

* Option D: The system supports multi-level, hierarchical networking where MCUs in different geographic regions can be cascaded automatically to optimize bandwidth and provide local access.

NEW QUESTION # 40

Huawei CloudLink videoconferencing platform consists of the SMC, MCU, and RSE.

- A. FALSE
- B. TRUE

Answer: A

Explanation:

The statement is FALSE because it omits a critical component of the platform architecture: the SC (SwitchCenter). A complete Huawei CloudLink/CloudVC infrastructure platform consists of four key Network Elements (NEs):

- * SMC (Service Management Center): For service logic and resource management.
- * SC (SwitchCenter): For signaling control, gatekeeper functions, and firewall traversal (H.323/SIP).
- * MCU (Multipoint Control Unit): For audio and video media switching and transcoding.
- * CloudRSE (Recording & Streaming Engine): For recording, live streaming, and video-on-demand.

Without the SC, the system cannot handle endpoint registration or complex call routing/traversal, which are essential platform functions.

NEW QUESTION # 41

Which of the following is the color gamut of the Huawei IdeaHub S2 65-inch display?

- A. 82% NTSC
- B. 75% NTSC
- C. 72% NTSC
- D. 85% NTSC

Answer: D

Explanation:

The Huawei IdeaHub S2 65-inch model features a professional-grade 4K soft-light screen. According to the technical specifications for the S2 series, the display supports a 85% NTSC color gamut. This ensures vibrant and accurate color reproduction, which is essential not only for video conferencing (making skin tones look natural) but also for detailed design reviews and multimedia presentations. Higher NTSC percentages indicate a broader range of colors that the screen can physically display.
