ACFE Certified Fraud Examiner - Fraud Prevention and Deterrence Exam Sample Questions (Q230-Q235):

NEW QUESTION # 230

Which of the following scenarios would MOST LIKELY be considered a violation of the ACFE Code of Professional Ethics?

- A. Grace, a CFE, uncovered internal control deficiencies that were material but unrelated to the financial statement fraud she was investigating. In her final report to management, Grace included information about the deficiencies despite their being unrelated to the situation she was hired to investigate.
- B. All of the above are violations.
- C. Mae, a CFE, was hired by a client to conduct a fraud examination but found nothing unusual. A year later, she received a legal order from the local prosecutor's office to provide the client's file.
Mae complied with the court order despite not having the client's authorization to provide the file.
- D. Eric, a CFE, accepted a fraud examination assignment and then instructed his employee to assess the company's accounts receivable for indications of fraud. He accepted the employee's work that showed no evidence of fraud without conducting his own assessment. However, the employee missed some key information, causing Eric to fail to uncover a costly fraud scheme.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Each scenario involves violations of the ACFE Code of Professional Ethics including unauthorized disclosure, failure to exercise due professional care, and inclusion of information outside of the scope of the engagement.

"CFEs must demonstrate a commitment to integrity and objectivity, avoid conflicts of interest, perform assignments with due diligence, and comply with lawful orders, balancing client confidentiality with legal obligations."

NEW QUESTION # 231

ArtisanWare, Inc. is a retailer of high-end kitchen supplies. The company receives a very large order from EFG Company, a new customer in a different country that wants to pay on credit.

Which of the following is MOST ACCURATE regarding the due diligence procedures that ArtisanWare should perform on EFG before proceeding with this transaction?

- A. ArtisanWare only needs to undertake due diligence procedures if EFG conducts business in countries with known corruption risks.
- B. ArtisanWare should examine EFG's net worth as part of deciding whether to allow the purchase on credit.
- C. ArtisanWare does not need to take any specific procedures to verify EFG's identity before accepting the transaction.
- D. ArtisanWare should perform the same level of due diligence as it would for any other customer to avoid claims of discrimination.

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 232

An effective system of anti-fraud controls

- A. Focuses more on preventive controls than detective controls
- B. Increases the perception that fraud will be detected
- C. Fully eliminates the risk of fraud
- D. Focuses more on detective controls than preventive controls

Answer: A

Explanation:

Purpose of Anti-Fraud Controls:

Preventive controls deter fraud before it occurs, making them the primary focus of an effective anti-fraud program.

Detective controls identify fraud after it has occurred, serving as a secondary line of defense.

NEW QUESTION # 233

Which of the following criminological theories states that individuals make a conscious decision to commit a crime and that crime can be deterred by reducing opportunities for criminal activity and increasing an individual's personal risk of being caught and punished?

- A. Routine activities theory
- B. Differential association theory
- C. Social conflict theory
- D. Rational choice theory

Answer: D

Explanation:

Rational Choice Theory Overview:

This theory posits that individuals consciously weigh the benefits and risks of committing a crime and make calculated decisions to engage in criminal behavior if the perceived benefits outweigh the risks.

Deterrence Mechanism

Crime can be deterred by reducing opportunities (e.g., strong internal controls) and increasing the likelihood of detection and punishment (e.g., effective monitoring systems).

Why C is Correct:

Rational choice theory explicitly addresses crime prevention through increased risks and reduced opportunities.

NEW QUESTION # 234

Which of the following is TRUE regarding International Standard on Auditing (ISA) 240?

- A. ISA 240 provides guidance regarding the auditor's responsibility to consider fraud in an audit of financial statements.
- B. ISA 240 creates requirements for the board of directors regarding the establishment of a holistic fraud risk management program
- C. ISA 240 requires auditors to effectively educate the staff about the risk of fraud within the audited organization.
- D. ISA 240 establishes auditors as being primarily responsible for implementing anti-fraud internal controls within an organization.

Answer: A
