問題 #15

What is the purpose of a total rewards strategy?

- A. To recognize organizational changes as they occur
- B. To use budget for rewards in order to retain employees
- C. To plan for establishing salaries among employees
- D. To represent the employee brand as effectively as possible
- E. To assist in creating teamwork among employees

答案: B

解題說明:

Explanation: The purpose of a total rewards strategy is one of reviewing the budget and finding out how much of the budget is available for establishing rewards that will retain employees. (Additionally, the total rewards strategy contributes to drawing potential employees and motivating them in their employment activities.) Answer choice A is incorrect. While a total rewards program might cover salaries, the total rewards strategy is larger than basic salary. Answer choice B is incorrect because the total rewards strategy is unrelated to employer brand. Answer choice C is incorrect because the total rewards strategy is unconnected to creating teamwork among employees. And answer choice E is incorrect because the total rewards strategy is unrelated to the recognition of organizational changes.

問題 #16

The Change Process Theory, attributed to Kurt Lewin, includes all of the following stages for change except:

- A. Unfreezing
- B. Refreezing
- C. Moving
- D. Implementing

答案: D

解題說明:

Explanation: The change process theory includes three stages: Unfreezing, Moving, and Refreezing. Implementing is not one of the stages within the change process theory.

問題 #17

Which of the following institutions did not receive Title VII coverage pursuant to the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972?

- A. State government agencies
- B. Universities
- C. Federal legislative bodies
- D. Religious institutions

答案: D

解題說明:

Explanation: The Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972 did not extend Title VII coverage to the employees of religious institutions. These organizations were exempted from the original version of Title VII (in the Civil Rights Act of 1964), and this exemption was maintained in 1972. Religious institutions are allowed to give preferential treatment to job candidates and employees who are adherents of that religion. Universities, state government agencies, and federal legislative bodies all became subject to Title VII with the passage of the Equal Employment Opportunity Act.
