NEW QUESTION # 97

According to the 'continued business justification' principle, what should happen to the funds when a project can no longer be justified?

- A. They should be used to create an alternative business case for the project
- B. They should be transferred back to the project board to reassign
- C. They should be returned to corporate, programme management or customer
- D. They should be used to deliver a reduction in the scope of the project

Answer: C

Explanation:

According to the 'continued business justification' principle of PRINCE2, if a project can no longer be justified - meaning it no longer meets its original or updated justification for a viable return on investment

- the funds allocated to it should be returned to corporate, programme management, or the customer. This ensures that resources are not wasted on unjustifiable projects.
