ASIS Physical Security Professional Exam Sample Questions (Q93-Q98):

NEW QUESTION # 93

What scrambles the information so that it is not usable unless the changes are reversed?

- A. Encryption
- B. Falsification
- C. Disgruntling
- D. Distraction

Answer: A

Explanation:

Encryption is a method of converting readable data into an encoded format using algorithms. Only those with the appropriate decryption key can convert the data back into its original, usable form. It is a primary method for protecting data confidentiality in storage and transmission.

Distraction (A), Disgruntling (B), and Falsification (C) are unrelated to data protection techniques.

NEW QUESTION # 94

A threat source differentiates the potential of one facility to be attacked versus another in a different location.

This activity is referred to as:

- A. Motivation
- B. Desire
- C. Targeting
- D. Collusion

Answer: C

Explanation:

Targeting refers to the process by which a threat actor selects a specific facility or asset based on attractiveness, vulnerabilities, symbolic value, or opportunity. This helps differentiate why one location may be more likely to be attacked than another.

Motivation (B) refers to the reason behind the attack.

Collusion (C) involves cooperation between insiders.

Desire (D) is a psychological element, not an operational step.

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 96

What not only reflect an applicant's financial situation and stability, they also provide other useful solution such as past addresses and previous employers?

- A. Miscellaneous reports
- B. Credit reports
- C. Status reports
- D. Legal reports

Answer: B

Explanation:

Credit reports not only reflect a person's financial condition (debts, credit utilization, bankruptcies), but also provide useful data such as past addresses and the names of previous employers. This auxiliary information is essential during background investigations and helps validate the accuracy of job applications.

Legal and compliance considerations apply; employers must follow fair credit reporting laws and obtain consent.
