Microsoft MS-700: Preparation resources

If by this point you have realized all the benefits of taking the exam, you can start preparing. First, review the skills outline. By the time of the actual test, you should be experienced in the following areas:

- Planning and configuration of the Microsoft Teams environment;
- Chat, calling, and meetings' management.
- Teams and app policies' management;

The exam program is extensive, but there are numerous resources available to help candidates cover the topics and be ready for MS-700.

- Microsoft training courses. In case you didn't know, Microsoft is a provider of not only certifications but also valuable training courses. On their platform, you will find various preparation tools and materials as well as tips and instructions for the exam process. As for the training pathway, a free Self-paced online training is offered for candidates with no time limit. The first five modules in this program will help you learn how to use Teams to facilitate teamwork and communication in their enterprise, and how to manage apps, bots, and connectors along with events, conferences, and meetings for increasing the power of Microsoft Teams. For individuals with a basic understanding of Microsoft 365, the last 5 modules will show how to upgrade to Microsoft Teams, plan and configure this process. Each module contains tests, so you can track the progress and see the weaknesses.

  If you don't have a lot of time to prepare and/or you want to enroll in instructor-led training, Microsoft offers Course MS-700T00-A: Managing Microsoft Teams. This four-day paid set of sessions is designed for candidates with a strong knowledge of the Microsoft 365 services and general IT practices, including PowerShell use. By completing 6 sections, each consisting of lectures and lab exercises, test-takers interested in passing MS-700 Exam will know how to work with Microsoft Teams and how to configure and manage it. Moreover, students will learn techniques for identifying and troubleshooting connection problems. Given that this course is directly created by Microsoft, it is fully compliant with the exam objectives and contains up-to-date material.

- Books and exam guides. Online training courses are a great preparation tool, but if you still have questions or need a more systematic and detailed source of information, you might consider books or exam guides, for example, 'Managing Microsoft Teams: MS-700 Exam Guide' by Nate Chamberlain and Peter Rising. This material is for Microsoft Teams Administrators who want to improve their skills to plan as well as configure the Microsoft Teams Environment, manage chat, calls, and meetings, along with Teams and App policies. Expert authors show you how to succeed in deploying, administering, and monitoring the Teams' features through the Microsoft 365 platform. By completing it, you will be equipped with effective practices and techniques for working with Teams and membership configuration, as well as creating application policies. This book will polish up your skills and will make you prepared for the exam day.

The MS-700 exam includes a variety of question formats, such as multiple-choice, drag-and-drop, and simulation-based questions. It covers a wide range of topics, including Teams deployment and administration, Teams meeting and telephony features, Teams apps and integrations, and Teams governance and compliance. Candidates who pass MS-700 exam will earn the Microsoft Certified: Teams Administrator Associate certification, which demonstrates their proficiency in managing Teams and their ability to support collaboration and communication in their organization.

Microsoft Managing Microsoft Teams Sample Questions (Q330-Q335):

NEW QUESTION # 330
SIMULATION
You need to ensure that the Approvals app is pinned to the top of the app bar of the Teams client for all members of the Retail team. The solution must NOT affect other users.
To complete this task, sign in to the Microsoft 365 portal.

Answer:

Explanation:

Teams pin app

Use app setup policies to pin and auto install apps for users
As an admin, you use app setup policies to install and pin apps and control which users can upload custom apps in personal or team context. Pinning helps promote adoption of apps for the users and it provides quick access to the relevant apps.

To modify the pinned apps for specific users, create a new app setup policy and assign it to the specific users.
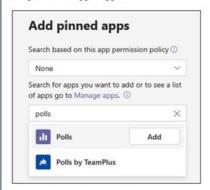

Phase 1, Create an app setup policy

Step 1: Sign in to Teams admin center and access Teams apps > Setup policies.

Step 2: Select Add.

Step 3: Provide a name and description for the policy.

Optionally, turn on User pinning to allow users to pin apps and change the order of the pinned apps.
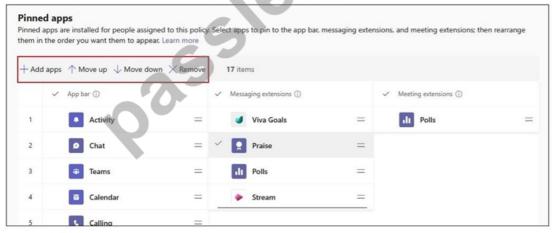

Step 4: Under Pinned apps, select Add apps.

Step 5: In the Add pinned apps pane, search for the apps you want to add [we select the Approvals app], and then select Add. Apps get added only to the scopes that the apps support.

Step 6: Arrange the apps in the order that you want the apps to appear in Teams client. You can change the sequence independently under App bar, Messaging extensions, and Meeting extensions. You can remove apps from a particular scope.

Step 7: Select Save.

Phase 2, assign the app setup policy specific users.

Assign policies to users and groups
Use the Microsoft Teams admin center
Assign a policy to a group

Step 1: In the left navigation of the Microsoft Teams admin center, go to Gropups > Manage Group.

Step 2: Select the Retail team, and then select Edit settings.

Step 3: Select the policy you want to assign, and then select Apply.
