Answer: A,B

NEW QUESTION # 23
A client wants to calculate tax differently when an order is billed for a range of particular postcodes. They want to implement their own system instead of using a third-party system. The Developer is asked to assist in this task by creating a conditional webhook.
What must be done to achieve this?

- A. Create a webhooks.xml file and add the rules wanted in the form of a rule node element using the regex operator to catch a range of postcodes.
- B. Create an after plugin on the webhook class and check for a list of postcodes at the time of processing and return true for certain postcodes.
- C. Implement a new webhook with a list of postcodes and link it to the original webhook, then advise the client to monitor for the new webhook instead.

Answer: A

Explanation:
Webhooks in Adobe Commerce can be customized using webhooks.xml, where rules can be defined with conditions, including regex-based filtering. This allows the developer to configure postcodes that trigger specific webhook behavior.
A is not correct: modifying core webhook logic via plugin is not the recommended approach.
C is incorrect: duplicating webhooks is unnecessary when rules can be defined declaratively.
B is correct: webhooks.xml with rule conditions provides the proper solution.

- A. Define the custom cache type in the di.xml, ensuring the cache model implements CacheInterface.
- B. Define the custom cache type directly in system.xml at the website level.
- C. Define the custom cache type in cache.xml with a unique name and instance.

What should the Developer do to solve this problem?

- A. From the Adobe Commerce Cloud console, the zero downtime deployment checkbox must be selected for the project.
- B. In the cloud env configuration YAML file, the static content deploy strategy must be defined in the build phase.
- C. In the cloud app configuration YAML file, the deployment strategy must be defined in the global phase.

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 26
A Developer applies multiple quality patches to an Adobe Commerce Cloud store. After deployment, the Developer discovers that one of the patches is causing issues.
What is the correct procedure to safely remove or revert the problematic quality patch?

- A. Delete the quality patch from the file magento.env.yaml.
- B. Execute command in magento-cloud:
  ./vendor/bin/ece-patches revert <patch-id>
- C. Delete the quality patch from the file magento.app.yaml.

Answer: B

Explanation:
The Quality Patches Tool (QPT) in Adobe Commerce Cloud provides a way to apply and revert patches. To safely remove a problematic patch, run:
/vendor/bin/ece-patches revert <patch-id>
This ensures that the patch is properly removed without affecting other applied patches.
A and C are incorrect because patches are not managed via YAML config files.
