Google Associate Cloud Engineer Exam Sample Questions (Q323-Q328):

NEW QUESTION # 323

Your developers have been thoroughly logging everything that happens in the API. The API allows end users to request the data as JSON, XML, CSV, and XLS. Supporting all of these formats is taking a lot of developer effort. Management would like to start tracking which options are used over the next month. Without modifying the code, what's the fastest way to be able to report on this data at the end of the month?

- A. Create a custom monitoring metric in code and edit the API code to set the metric each time the API is called.
- B. Create a custom counter logging metric that uses a regex to extract the data format into a label. At the end of the month, use the metric viewer to see the group by the label.
- C. Create a log sink that filters for rows that mention the data format. Export that to BigQuery, and run a query at the end of the month.

- D. Export the logs to excel, and search for the different fields.

Answer: B,D

NEW QUESTION # 324

You need to set up permissions for a set of Compute Engine instances to enable them to write data into a particular Cloud Storage bucket. You want to follow Google-recommended practices. What should you do?

- A. Create a service account with an access scope. Use the access scope 'https://www.googleapis.com/auth/devstorage.write_only'.
- B. Create a service account with an access scope. Use the access scope 'https://www.googleapis.com/auth/cloud-platform'.
- C. Create a service account and add it to the IAM role 'storage.objectAdmin' for that bucket.
- D. Create a service account and add it to the IAM role 'storage.objectCreator' for that bucket.

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 325

You have designed a solution on Google Cloud Platform (GCP) that uses multiple GCP products.

Your company has asked you to estimate the costs of the solution.

You need to provide estimates for the monthly total cost. What should you do?

- A. For each GCP product in the solution, review the pricing details on the products pricing page. Create a Google Sheet that summarizes the expected monthly costs for each product.
- B. For each GCP product in the solution, review the pricing details on the products pricing page. Use the pricing calculator to total the monthly costs for each GCP product.
- C. Provision the solution on GCP. Leave the solution provisioned for 1 week. Navigate to the Billing Report page in the Google Cloud Platform Console. Multiply the 1 week cost to determine the monthly costs.
- D. Provision the solution on GCP. Leave the solution provisioned for 1 week. Use Stackdriver to determine the provisioned and used resource amounts. Multiply the 1 week cost to determine the monthly costs.

Answer: B

Explanation:

GCP best practices is to use Billing Calculator to estimate costs.

NEW QUESTION # 326

Every employee of your company has a Google account. Your operational team needs to manage a large number of instances on Compute Engine. Each member of this team needs only administrative access to the servers. Your security team wants to ensure that the deployment of credentials is operationally efficient and must be able to determine who accessed a given instance. What should you do?

- A. Generate a new SSH key pair. Give the private key to each member of your team. Configure the public key in the metadata of each instance.
- B. Ask each member of the team to generate a new SSH key pair and to add the public key to their Google account. Grant the "compute.osAdminLogin" role to the Google group corresponding to this team.
- C. Generate a new SSH key pair. Give the private key to each member of your team. Configure the public key as a project-wide public SSH key in your Cloud Platform project and allow project-wide public SSH keys on each instance.
- D. Ask each member of the team to generate a new SSH key pair and to send you their public key. Use a configuration management tool to deploy those keys on each instance.

Answer: B

Explanation:

We recommend collecting users with the same responsibilities into groups and assigning IAM roles to the groups rather than to individual users. For example, you can create a "data scientist" group and assign appropriate roles to enable interaction with BigQuery and Cloud Storage. When a new data scientist joins your team, you can simply add them to the group and they will inherit the defined permissions. You can create and manage groups through the Admin Console.

NEW QUESTION # 327

Your company runs a variety of applications and workloads on Google Cloud and you are responsible for managing cloud costs. You need to identify a solution that enables you to perform detailed cost analysis. You also must be able to visualize the cost data in multiple ways on the same dashboard. What should you do?

- A. Enable the Cloud Billing export to BigQuery, and use Looker Studio to visualize the data
- B. Enable Cloud Monitoring metrics export to BigQuery and use Looker to visualize the data
- C. Use the cost breakdown report with the available filters from Cloud Billing to visualize the data
- D. Run Queries in Cloud Monitoring. Create dashboards to visualize the billing metrics

Answer: A
