NEW QUESTION # 126

As Materials Manager, you are always attentive to Finance's concern about high inventory levels. To that end, you arranged to off-load procurement and storage of several expensive components to become the responsibility of your contract manufacturer. You modified the bills of material accordingly. You thought this would satisfy Finance, but they complained to you that even though production levels have remained flat, they are not seeing a reduction in inventory.

What is the problem?

- A. The "supplier" box in Manage Plant Parameters has not been deselected.

- B. The "supplier" box for the "Supply Types to Include" plan option of Manage Plans has not been deselected.
- C. The "supplier" box on the Organization tab in Maintain Supply Network Model has not been deselected.
- D. The supply type has not been changed to "supplier" for the affected components in the Item Structures of the contracted items.

Answer: D

Explanation:

When transitioning procurement responsibility to a contract manufacturer, it is essential to adjust the supply type of the contracted items to "supplier" within the item structures. This change ensures that the inventory associated with these components reflects their new procurement source, helping reduce your reported inventory levels. Without this adjustment, Oracle Planning may still consider these items as being managed internally, thus failing to reflect the reduction in inventory as anticipated MY ORACLE SUPPORT

NEW QUESTION # 127

What does the Advanced Plan Option check box "Consider currency conversion rates to plan revenue" do?

- A. For supply and sales and operations plans, it enables prioritization of constrained products based on higher price and to consider exchange rates.
- B. It enables sales and operations plans with constrained products to prioritize products based on higher price and to consider exchange rates.
- C. It enables backlog plans to prioritize constrained products based on higher price and to consider exchange rates.
- D. It enables supply plans with planning method constrained to prioritize constrained products based on higher price and to consider exchange rates.

Answer: A

Explanation:

The "Consider currency conversion rates to plan revenue" option allows both supply and sales and operations plans to factor in currency conversion rates. This enables prioritization based on product pricing in different currencies, which is particularly useful in multinational operations where pricing and revenue planning depend on exchange rate variations
