PRINCE2 Agile Foundation Sample Questions (Q147-Q152):

NEW QUESTION # 147

Which workshop reflects on lessons learned?

- A. Project closure workshop
- B. Project kickoff workshop
- C. Agile enablement workshop
- D. Team planning workshop

Answer: A

Explanation:

The Project Closure Workshop is the formal forum used to reflect on lessons learned during the project lifecycle. It is held towards the end of the project and provides an opportunity for the project team, stakeholders, and sponsors to review successes, challenges, and areas for improvement.

Capturing lessons learned supports organizational learning, helps avoid repeating mistakes, and improves future projects and agile adoption. This reflective practice aligns with PRINCE2's focus on continuous improvement and governance requirements.

Other workshops such as team planning (A) focus on upcoming work, agile enablement (B) on agile adoption, and project kickoff (C) on project initiation, none of which prioritize lessons learned reflection.

The project closure workshop is a vital practice to ensure knowledge retention and maturity in both traditional and agile project environments.

NEW QUESTION # 149

In which workshop are the project role descriptions created?

- A. Project kickoff workshop
- B. Project initiation workshop
- C. Starting-up workshop
- D. Project canvas workshop

Answer: C

Explanation:

The starting-up workshop is the initial workshop where the foundation for the project is established, including the creation and clarification of project role descriptions. Defining roles early ensures clarity of responsibilities, helps establish governance, and sets expectations for the project team.

Kickoff (B) focuses on launching the project, initiation (C) develops detailed plans, and the project canvas (D) is a tool for capturing high-level information but does not define roles explicitly.
