Network Appliance NetApp Certified AI Expert Exam Sample Questions (Q82-Q87):

NEW QUESTION # 82

A pharmaceutical company is creating a "digital twin" of its manufacturing process. This involves running complex simulations (an HPC workload) that generate massive datasets.

The company wants to use this data immediately for two other purposes:

1. Analytics: Business analysts need to run complex queries on the simulation output using tools like Spark.
2. AI Training: Data scientists need to use the same output as a training set for a predictive maintenance model.

The company wants to avoid creating separate data silos for each workload.

Which two NetApp technologies are best suited for building a unified data lake that can efficiently serve all three workloads (HPC, Analytics, AI)? (Choose 2.)

- A. NetApp Keystone to provide a flexible, pay-as-you-go consumption model for the infrastructure.
- B. NetApp Autonomous Ransomware Protection to secure the data from modification.
- C. NetApp StorageGRID to provide a scalable, S3-native object store that integrates directly with modern analytics platforms like Spark.
- D. NetApp ONTAP with FlexGroup volumes to provide high-throughput, parallel NFS access for the HPC and AI training workloads.
- E. NetApp SnapCenter to create application-consistent backups of the data.

Answer: C,D

NEW QUESTION # 83

The Chief Information Security Officer (CISO) is concerned about the risk of a ransomware attack encrypting the critical vector database hosted on the NetApp AFF A-Series. The CISO wants a solution that can proactively detect and block a live attack in real-time, not just recover from a backup after the fact.

Which NetApp security feature should the architect enable on the vector database volume to meet this requirement?

- A. Autonomous Ransomware Protection (ARP)
- B. NetApp SnapLock (Compliance Mode)
- C. NetApp Volume Encryption (NVE)
- D. Multi-Admin Verification (MAV)

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 84

An online retail company's recommendation engine, which provides real-time product suggestions to users, is experiencing unacceptable latency. The inference application is running on a correctly-sized edge server, but user requests are taking over 500ms to process. An architect reviews the data access pattern and infrastructure diagram.

Application_Location: Edge Server (In-store)

Data_Source_Location: Core Data Center (On-premises ONTAP)

Data_Required_for_Inference: User profile data, product catalog vectors Network_Path: Edge -> WAN -> Core Data Center

Observed_Latency: 550ms What is the most likely cause of the high inference latency?

- A. Every inference request requires a high-latency round trip over the WAN to fetch data from the core data center.
- B. The on-premises ONTAP system is not configured for high-throughput.
- C. The model is too large to fit into the edge server's memory.
- D. The edge server has insufficient CPU resources to run the model.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 85

Which storage protocols are commonly used for handling large-scale AI data? (Choose two)

- A. Parallel file systems
- B. Object-based storage
- C. POSIX-based file systems
- D. File-based systems

Answer: A,B

NEW QUESTION # 86

To meet HIPAA compliance, the first step in the data pipeline is to identify all medical scans that contain embedded PII. The solution must be automated and capable of scanning data in-place on the on-premises ASA system.

Which two technologies should be used to accomplish this identification and tagging task?

(Choose 2.)

- A. A custom Python script that uses regular expressions to search file contents.

- B. NetApp SnapLock to make the source data immutable before scanning.
- C. A custom "PII" category within BlueXP classification to identify specific medical record number formats.
- D. NetApp BlueXP classification, configured to scan the on-premises ASA working environment.
