Salesforce Certified CRM Analytics and Einstein Discovery Consultant Sample Questions (Q63-Q68):

NEW QUESTION # 63
The CRM Analytics consultant at Universal Containers notices that some users have access to sensitive data and dashboards they should not have access to in the Manager's app.
How should the consultant fix the problem?

- A. Create separate apps, datasets, and dashboards, and share them with the proper users.
- B. Apply data encryption using Salesforce Shield.
- C. Develop separate dashboards and datasets and put them in the Manager's app.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 64
What is the purpose of the CRM Analytics Dashboard Inspector?

- A. To see the final query for each widget along with the results.
- B. To view the total time required to run all queries.
- C. To automatically remove bottlenecks to make queries run faster.

Answer: A

Explanation:
The CRM Analytics Dashboard Inspector is a powerful tool used to troubleshoot and optimize dashboards. Its primary function is to display the underlying SAQL (Salesforce Analytics Query Language) query executed for each widget. It helps users see the final query that is run and the corresponding results. This feature allows CRM Analytics consultants and developers to diagnose issues, optimize performance, and understand how data is being processed in the dashboard.
While the Inspector helps view execution times and identify bottlenecks, it does not automatically resolve performance issues (which is why option B is incorrect). It simply provides visibility into query performance and execution details, allowing the user to make manual optimizations.

NEW QUESTION # 65
Exhibit.
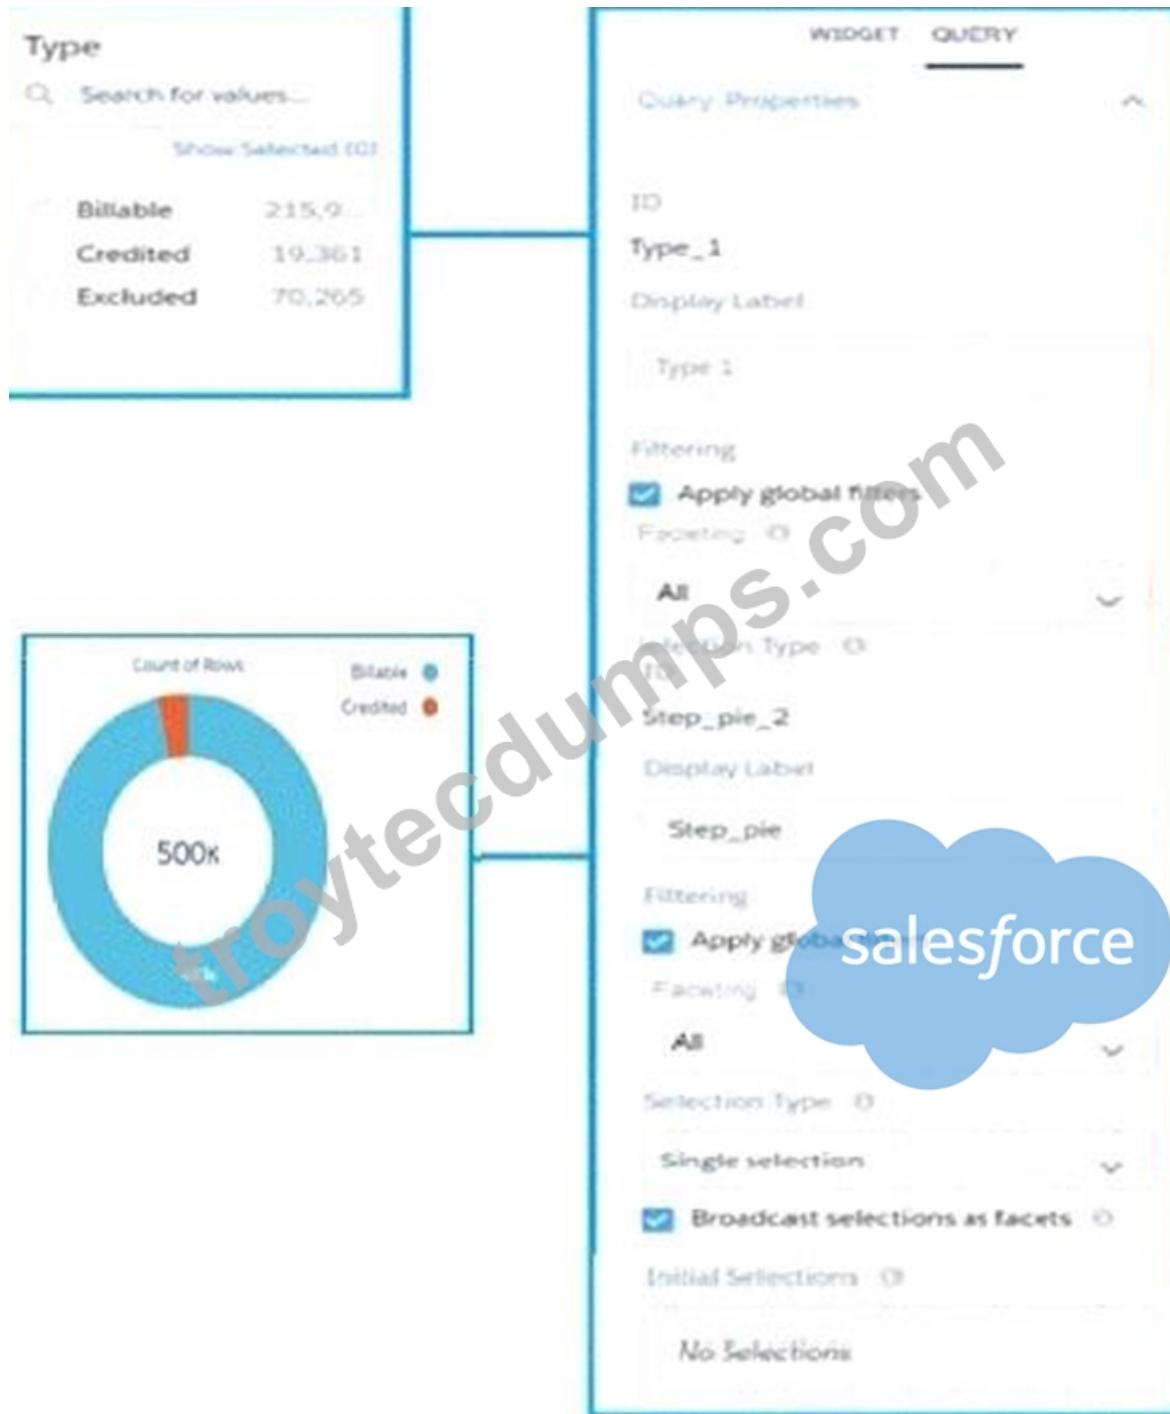

Given that the queries are using different datasets, which change should a CRM Analytics consultant make to solve this issue?

- A. Use "Connect Data Sources" and create a connection to connect the two datasets.
- B. Use result binding/Interaction in the filters section of the query "Type 1".
- C. Use "Connect Data Sources" and create a connection to connect the two widgets.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 66
A data architect wants to use a recipe transformation to implement row level security based on role hierarchy in Salesforce.
Which transformation should the architect use to level the dataset hierarchy?

- A. Flatten
- B. Aggregate
- C. Join

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 67
Cloud Kicks' Salesforce org has multiple currencies enabled. This company's business intelligence team uses CRM Analytics to build a dataflow/recipe that creates a dataset, "OpportunityDataSet", which is populated with data extracted from Opportunity. One of the extracted fields is the standard field, Amount.
Which currency will the Amount values be shown in "OpportunityDataSet"?

- A. In the integration user's currency
- B. In the currency that Is set on the "currency" attribute.
- C. the connected user's currency

Answer: A

Explanation:
When a dataset like "OpportunityDataSet" is populated through a dataflow or recipe in CRM Analytics, the currency values (such as the standard field "Amount") will be displayed in the currency of the integration user unless there is specific currency conversion logic set up within the dataset or recipe. The integration user is the user whose credentials are used to run the dataflow and extract data, and their currency setting will dictate how numeric currency values are displayed unless overridden.
