Refer to the time-scaled network diagram and other information to answer the following questions. Please consider this to be the entire network.

- A. 4.
- B. 3.
- C. 8.
- D. 0

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 171

A legal research generally involves locating:

- A. the applicable statute
- B. the applicable case law
- C. All of the above
- D. related articles in professional journals

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 172

For activity 11001, why would the crashed direct cost be greater than the direct cost of the normal schedule?

- A. Some costs resulting from the crashed efforts were forgotten in previous activities
- B. Management bonuses for early completion were included in this activity
- C. Generally, more equipment is used for a crashed project; therefore, it costs more to demobilize
- D. Additional extended overhead is also being shown in this activity

Answer: C

Explanation:

Crashing increases direct costs as additional resources, equipment, or expedited delivery methods are employed to shorten the project duration. The PSP Study Guide (Section 2.3.5, "Acceleration") highlights that crashing involves trade-offs between time and cost, often resulting in higher demobilization costs due to the increased deployment of equipment and resources.

NEW QUESTION # 173

Which of the following are NOT normally included in the project scope statement, either directly or by reference?

- A. Project justification
- B. Project objectives in terms of cost, schedule and quality measures
- C. Project contract between the contractor and owner
- D. Project deliverables

Answer: C

Explanation:

The Project Scope Statement typically includes:

- * Project objectives.
- * Justification.
- * Deliverables.

However, the contract between the contractor and owner is not included directly in the scope statement.

Instead, it serves as a separate legal document governing the project's terms and conditions. This distinction is clear in project scope management practices discussed in the PSP materials.
