CPB Practice Exam A (100% Correct) Questions and Answers

The office policy for claims follow-up is to prioritize the insurance balance accounts past 90 days by highest outstanding balance. Based on the A/R report provided, which payer type and aging category would be one of the top priorities on which to focus collection efforts? - workers' compensation, 121+ days

Using the fee schedule and the payment policy provided, what is the expected reimbursement (including patient responsibility) when a provider performs a nasal endoscopy and dilation of the left maxillary sinus (31295) and a diagnostic nasal endoscopy of the right maxillary sinus (31233)? - $2475

Policy applies to all professional services performed in an office place of service: When a significant, separately identifiable E/M service (appended with modifier 25) and any service that has a global period indicator—as designated by CMS of 0, 10, 90 or YYY—is performed on the same day, the E/M service will be reimbursed at 50% of the contracted allowable. When performed in a facility, both services are paid at 100%.

When the E/M value is greater than the procedure, the reduction will be applied to the global procedure code.

Based on the remittance advice and the payment policy provided, what action is required for this claim? - D. The claim did not pay correctly. Both services should be paid at 100%. Contact the payer to reprocess the claim for full payment.
