NEW QUESTION # 190

During an external audit of an organization's financial statements. Elena, the external auditor, uncovers significant internal control deficiencies at the audit client's organization. She believes these deficiencies could result in a material misstatement of the financial statements. Which of the following should Elena do with regard to these findings?

- A. Elena should work independently to correct the underlying internal control deficiency.
- B. Elena should suspend the audit and begin a new audit focused on the internal controls
- C. Elena should report the findings in writing to the appropriate law enforcement agencies.
- D. Elena should provide a written communication about the findings to senior management.

Answer: D

Explanation:

* Responsibilities of an External Auditor:

* When significant internal control deficiencies are discovered, the auditor is required to report them to senior management and, where appropriate, the audit committee.

* The purpose is to ensure that the organization is informed of the risks and can take corrective actions.

* Analysis of Other Options:

* A. Suspend the audit: Not required under auditing standards.

* B. Report to law enforcement: Only if fraud or illegal activities are confirmed, which is not implied here.

* D. Correct deficiencies independently: This is beyond the auditor's scope of responsibilities.

* Conclusion: The correct response is to provide a written communication about the findings to senior management.
