NEW QUESTION # 291

To get full value for your energy dollars, first arrange for an energy audit of your home. An audit will reveal such things as energy-sapping drafts, insufficient insulation, improper weather stripping, and a need for storm windows and doors.

Installing storm windows may be energy-saving but should be preceded by

- A. storm doors.
- B. proper weatherstripping.
- C. insulation.
- D. an energy audit.

Answer: D

Explanation:

The main idea of the paragraph is that an energy audit should be done as a first step toward saving energy dollars. The details that follow are some of the items an audit concentrates on. The question, however, asks you to identify what precedes, or comes before, the installation of an energy-saving device.
