NEW QUESTION # 32

Universal Containers (UC) is using Communications Cloud and would like to introduce a limited-time offer to their customers. The offer will be available on UC's website through DC APIs and once claimed, will give customers a 10% discount for three months. Which two options should a Consultant configure to meet this requirement?

- A. Offering
- B. Discount
- C. Time Plan
- D. Promotion

Answer: C,D

Explanation:

The requirement is to introduce a limited-time offer that is available on the website (digital channel/DC APIs) and, once claimed, grants a 10% discount for three months.

This is the definition of a Promotion that uses a Time Plan to define the duration of the discount.

Promotion (A):

In Salesforce Industries CPQ, a Promotion is the container entity used to define a marketing offer that modifies the price of a product (in this case, a 10% discount).

The Promotion entity is what is typically exposed to digital channels (like the website via DC APIs) for customers to claim or qualify for. The search results confirm that Promotions are used to "apply temporary changes to product pricing, bundles, and product structure".

Time Plan (B):

The Time Plan is a sub-feature of Promotions (or Price Lists) that defines the duration for which the commercial change (the 10% discount) is active.

The requirement states the discount is only for "three months." A Time Plan is specifically configured to start the discount upon activation and automatically end it after the defined period (3 months), ensuring the billing system correctly handles the price change back to the original rate.

D (Discount) is a result of the configuration, not the feature itself. The discount value (10%) is defined within the promotion.

C (Offering) is a synonym often used for a product or bundle, but it does not specify the limited-time discount mechanism required.
