UiPath Automation Business Analyst Associate Exam (2023.10) Sample Questions (Q76-Q81):

NEW QUESTION # 76
Which of the following best describes the Automation Business Analyst's role during the Process Analysis stage?

- A. Handles infrastructure provisioning
- B. Defines coding best practices
- C. Approves solution architecture
- D. Analyzes the As-Is process and defines the To-Be process

Answer: D

Explanation:
During theProcess Analysis stage, theAutomation Business Analystis responsible foranalyzing the current (As-Is) processanddefining the future (To-Be) processto be automated. This includes mapping out each step, understanding business rules, identifying inefficiencies, and collaborating with stakeholders to envision how automation will change the process.
The Business Analyst also works closely with the Solution Architect to prepare theProcess Definition Document (PDD)and ensures that the process is well-documented for the developers to understand and automate.
This role is essential forbridging the gap between business users and technical implementers, ensuring that the solution reflects the true needs of the business while being technically feasible.

NEW QUESTION # 77
What is the first stage in the UiPath Automation Implementation Methodology?

- A. Process Analysis
- B. Kickoff
- C. Solution Design
- D. Business Case and Technical Validation

Answer: B

Explanation:
TheKickoffstage is thefirst formal stagein the UiPath Automation Implementation Methodology. It marks the official beginning of the automation project. During this phase, initial planning and alignment take place between theClient Teamand theImplementation Team. This includes defining high-level project scope, identifying key stakeholders, and setting expectations regarding timelines, deliverables, roles, and responsibilities.
Theproject manager,solution architect, andinfrastructure engineerfrom the Implementation Teamtypically participate in the Kickoff meeting to ensure technical and managerial aspects are properly addressed.
Discussions also include initial access requirements, infrastructure needs, availability of Client Teammembers, and user involvement. An essential output of this stage is thereviewed Statement of Work (SOW), which outlines the agreement on the scope and project objectives. This stage sets the foundation for the successful execution of the remaining stages by aligning all parties on the project's goals and ensuring that the groundwork for collaboration is firmly in place.

NEW QUESTION # 78
Which one of the following statements is TRUE about the Process Definition Document (PDD)?

- A. It is prepared solely by the Project Manager
- B. It is filled with only the As-Is process details
- C. It is a document used for project closure after deployment
- D. It contains only the To-Be process design and future-state flows

Answer: B

Explanation:
TheProcess Definition Document (PDD)is primarily filled with theAs-Is process details, makingOption C the correct statement. The PDD captures how the process works today - including steps, inputs/outputs, systems used, exceptions, and roles involved.
It is typically created through collaboration between theBusiness AnalystandSolution Architect, based on workshops and shadowing sessions with the Client Team. This document forms the foundation for all subsequent steps in the implementation lifecycle, especially theSolution Designstage, where the To-Be process is planned.
The PDD ensures all stakeholders have ashared understandingof the current process before automation design begins. It also helps identify scope boundaries and validate that automation requirements are complete and accurate.

NEW QUESTION # 79
Which stage of the Automation Implementation Methodology involves assessing automation candidates for business value and technical feasibility?

- A. Process Analysis
- B. Business Case and Technical Validation

- C. Kickoff
- D. Deployment and Hypercare

Answer: B

Explanation:
TheBusiness Case and Technical Validationstage is crucial for evaluatingwhether an automation initiative is feasible and valuable. In this stage, selected automation candidates undergo rigorous assessment to determine if they are suitable for automation in terms of business impact and technical execution.
Key stakeholders involved include thebusiness analyst,solution architect, andproject manager. The business analyst evaluates theROI and cost-benefitof automating the process. Simultaneously, the solution architect assesses thetechnical complexity,dependencies, andaccess requirementsfor implementation.
This dual validation ensures the process is worth automating and can be implemented within the current technical environment. Processes that are highly complex, have low ROI, or involve systems that do not integrate well may be deprioritized or dropped. Without this stage, organizations risk spending time and resources on automations that may not deliver sufficient value or may face technical hurdles, which is why it is a foundational step in the implementation methodology.

NEW QUESTION # 80
Which role is responsible for fixing any defects found during UAT?

- A. Business Analyst
- B. Solution Architect
- C. Automation Developer
- D. Infrastructure Engineer

Answer: C

Explanation:
During theUser Acceptance Testing (UAT)stage, any defects or issues identified are addressed by the Automation Developer. This role is responsible for building the automation based on the agreed design and then making any required corrections based on UAT feedback.
The automation developer collaborates closely with thebusiness analyst,solution architect, andproject managerto ensure that the solution functions correctly in a production-like environment. If testers from the Client Team identify bugs or unexpected behavior, the developer investigates and applies fixes promptly.
Furthermore, the developer must also document changes, update stakeholders, and sometimes revise the test cases or SDD if significant adjustments are made. Their ability to respond quickly and effectively to UAT issues directly influences user confidence and the success of the production rollout.
